Australia Day Live Concert 2013

On Friday 25 January 2013, the Prime Minister will be announcing the Australian of the Year at a ceremony on the Parliament House Forecourt area.

The ceremony will be recorded at 6.00pm for a delayed broadcast later that evening. A live-to-air concert featuring Australian performers will follow the ceremony.

Road and car park closures

To facilitate this event, the following temporary road and car park closures have been put in place for Friday 25 January, which are also shown on the attached map:

Closures from 6.00am to midnight:

- The Parliament Drive link road at the top of Federation Mall;
- Federation Mall (east and west);
- Queen Victoria Terrace at the bottom of Federation Mall; and
- East Block and West Block car parks.

Closures from 3.00pm to midnight:

- entry into the Parliament House public car park (other than accredited vehicles); and
- South-bound traffic on Kings Avenue beyond State Circle.

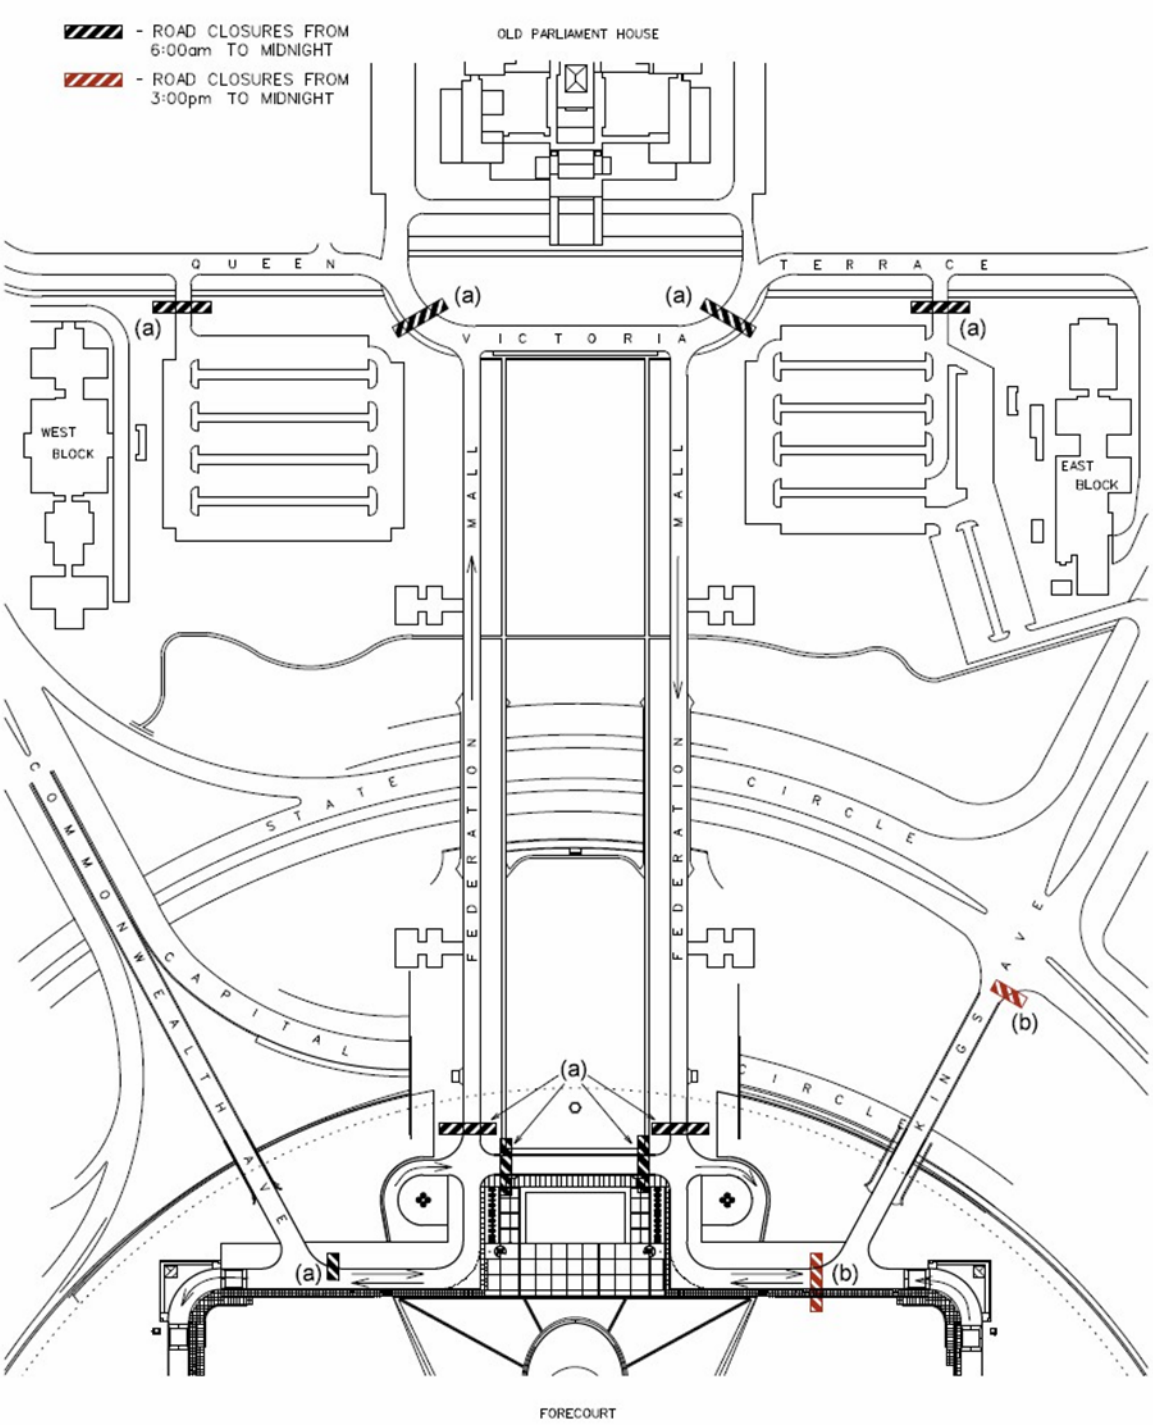
Building occupants will be able to access the Senate, House of Representatives and Ministerial car parks at all times. Vehicles leaving the House of Representatives car park after 3.00pm must exit via Kings Avenue.

The public car park will be open and used as a thoroughfare for all traffic from Parliament Drive east to west from 6.00am until 3.00pm on 25 January. After this time, only accredited (event related) vehicles will be permitted to enter the car park. Vehicles will be able to exit the public car park at any time after 3.00pm.

Closure of forecourt

The Forecourt (above the public car park) will be closed between 5.30pm and 7.30pm on Friday 25 January during the Australian of the Year ceremony.

Office of the Secretary
Department of Parliamentary Services

23 January 2013


Parliament House road and car park closures—25 January 2013