

Petition calling for an end to live animal export

To the Honourable Members of the House of Representatives in the Parliament assembled:

This petition of the undersigned citizens of Australia calls on the House of Representatives to end the export of live animals for slaughter. We the undersigned therefore call on the House to end this trade and, in so doing, restore Australia's reputation as a compassionate and ethical nation.