CHAPTER 1

THE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT

1 Proceedings on opening

- (1) On the first day of the meeting of a session of Parliament, after a general election for the Senate and the House of Representatives, or after a general election for the House of Representatives:
 - (a) If there is a President the President shall take the chair at the time specified in the proclamation.
 - (b) The Clerk shall read the proclamation calling Parliament together.
 - (c) Deputies appointed by the Governor-General shall be introduced by the Usher of the Black Rod to the Senate chamber.
 - (d) The Senior Deputy shall direct the Usher of the Black Rod to desire the attendance of the members of the House of Representatives to hear the commission read.
 - (e) Members of the House of Representatives shall sit in the Senate chamber and the Clerk shall read the commission.
 - (f) The Senior Deputy shall then inform the members of both Houses that the Governor-General will at a future time declare the cause of calling Parliament together.
 - (g) The certificate of election or choice of each senator whose term of office has begun since the last sitting of the Senate shall be laid on the table, and each such senator may then make and subscribe the oath or affirmation of allegiance in accordance with the Constitution.
 - (h) If the office of President is vacant the Senate shall elect a President.
- (2) On the first day of the meeting of a session of Parliament not after a general election for the Senate and the House of Representatives or a general election for the House of Representatives:

If there is a President:

- (a) The President shall take the chair at the time specified in the proclamation.
- (b) The Clerk shall read the proclamation calling Parliament together.
- (c) The Governor-General shall be introduced by the Usher of the Black Rod to the Senate chamber.
- (d) The certificate of election or choice of each senator whose term of office has begun since the last sitting of the Senate shall be laid on the table, and each such senator may then make and subscribe the oath or affirmation of allegiance in accordance with the Constitution.

If there is no President:

- (e) The Clerk shall at the time specified in the proclamation read the proclamation calling Parliament together.
- (f) Deputies appointed by the Governor-General shall be introduced by the Usher of the Black Rod to the Senate chamber.
- (g) The Clerk shall read the commission.
- (h) The Senior Deputy shall inform the Senate that the Governor-General will at a future time declare the cause of calling Parliament together.
- (i) The certificate of election or choice of each senator whose term of office has begun since the last sitting of the Senate shall be laid on the table, and each such senator may then make and subscribe the oath or affirmation of allegiance in accordance with the Constitution.
- (j) The Senate shall elect a President.

2 Governor-General's speech

- (1) When the Governor-General has arrived at the chamber, the Usher of the Black Rod shall announce and conduct the Governor-General to the chair, the President leaving the chair and sitting to the right.
- (2) The Governor-General will direct the Usher of the Black Rod to command the immediate attendance of the House of Representatives in the Senate chamber.
- (3) When the members of the House of Representatives have come with their Speaker into the Senate chamber the Governor-General will declare the cause of calling the Parliament together.
- (4) The President and the Speaker will each receive a copy of the Governor-General's speech, the Governor-General will withdraw from the Senate chamber, and the President shall again take the chair.

3 Address-in-reply

- (1) Before the Governor-General's speech is reported to the Senate, some formal business may be transacted, and petitions may be presented, notices of motion may be given, and documents laid upon the table.
- (2) The President shall report to the Senate the speech of the Governor-General.
- (3) Consideration of the Governor-General's speech may be made an order of the day for a future day, or a motion for an address-in-reply to the speech may be made.
- (4) Only formal business shall be entered into before the address-in-reply to the Governor-General's opening speech has been adopted.

- (5) When the address has been agreed to, a motion will be made that it be presented to the Governor-General by the President and senators.
- (6) The President shall report to the Senate the presentation of the address and the reply of the Governor-General.

4 Opening of Parliament by the Queen

When Her Majesty the Queen is present in Australia and intends to indicate in person the cause of the calling together of Parliament, references in this chapter to the Governor-General shall be read as references to Her Majesty the Queen.

CHAPTER 2

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

5 Term of office

- (1) Subject to section 17 of the Constitution, the office of President shall become vacant:
 - (a) on the day next before the first sitting day of the Senate after the 30th day of June following a periodical election; and
 - (b) on the date of a proclamation dissolving the Senate.
- (2) A periodical election means any election for the purpose of filling the places of the senators of either of the 2 classes mentioned in section 13 of the Constitution.

(amended 6 May 1993)

6 Election of President

- (1) Whenever the office of President becomes vacant, whether because of section 17 of the Constitution or of the standing orders, the Clerk shall act as chair of the Senate prior to the election of the President, and shall have the powers of the President under the standing orders while so acting.
- (2) A senator, addressing the Clerk, shall propose to the Senate as President some senator then present, and move that that senator take the chair of the Senate as President. The senator proposing the motion and any senator speaking to it may speak for not longer than 15 minutes.
- (3) If only one senator is proposed as President, the senator so proposed is called by the Senate to the chair without any question being put, shall express a sense of the honour proposed to be conferred on the senator, and shall be conducted to the chair.
- (4) If 2 or more senators are proposed as President, a motion shall be made regarding each such senator, that that senator take the chair of the Senate as President, and each senator so proposed shall express a sense of the honour proposed to be conferred on the senator, and may address the Senate.

(amended 6 May 1993)

7 Ballot

- (1) When 2 senators have been so proposed as President, each senator present shall deliver to the Clerk a ballot paper indicating the name of the candidate for whom the senator votes. The candidate who has the greater number of votes shall be the President, and be conducted to the chair.
- (2) When more than 2 senators have been so proposed, the votes shall be similarly taken, and the senator who has the greatest number of votes shall be the President, provided that senator has also a majority of the votes of the senators present.

- (3) If no candidate has such a majority, the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes shall be withdrawn, and a fresh ballot shall take place; and this shall be done as often as necessary, until one candidate is elected as President by such a majority, and the senator elected shall be conducted to the chair.
- (4) If there is an equality of votes, the votes shall be again taken, and if again there is an equality of votes, the Clerk shall determine, by lot, which of the candidates, having the same number of votes, shall be withdrawn, as if that candidate had obtained the lesser number of votes.

8 Presentation to Governor-General

- (1) Having been conducted to the chair, the senator so elected shall return acknowledgments to the Senate and assume the chair.
- (2) Senators may congratulate the President, and a minister shall inform the Senate of the time at which the Governor-General will receive the Senate for the purpose of presenting their President, and the sitting of the Senate shall then be suspended or adjourned until that time, unless the Governor-General receives the Senate at once.
- (3) Before the Senate proceeds to any business, the President, accompanied by senators, shall be presented to the Governor-General.

CHAPTER 3

DEPUTY PRESIDENT AND CHAIR OF COMMITTEES

9 Term of office

- (1) At the commencement of the sittings next ensuing after the 30th day of June following each periodical election, or at the commencement of the session after a general election of the Senate, or when any vacancy occurs, the Senate shall appoint a senator to be Deputy President and Chair of Committees.
- (2) The office of Deputy President and Chair of Committees shall become vacant:
 - (a) on the day next before the first sitting day of the Senate after the 30th day of June following a periodical election; and
 - (b) on the date of a proclamation dissolving the Senate.

(amended 6 May 1993)

10 Appointment of Deputy President

The Deputy President and Chair of Committees shall be appointed in a similar manner to the President.

11 Duty of Chair

The Chair of Committees shall take the chair of the committee at the table whenever a committee of the whole is constituted.

12 Temporary Chairs

The President shall nominate at the commencement of each Parliament a panel of not less than 2 senators who may act as Temporary Chairs of Committees when requested so to do by the Chair of Committees, or when the Chair of Committees is absent.

CHAPTER 4

ABSENCE OF PRESIDENT, DEPUTY PRESIDENT AND OFFICERS

13 Absence of President

- (1) When the Senate at the commencement of a sitting is informed by the Clerk of the absence of the President, the Deputy President shall perform the duties and exercise the authority of President in relation to all proceedings of the Senate until the next meeting of the Senate, subject to any order of the Senate.
- (2) If the Senate adjourns for more than 24 hours, the Deputy President shall continue to perform the duties and exercise the authority of President for 24 hours only after the adjournment, unless the Senate otherwise provides.

14 Absence of both officers

If both the President and the Deputy President are absent, the senators present, if a quorum, shall elect a senator present to act as President for that day only, the question being put to the Senate by the Clerk.

15 Relief of President

- (1) The Deputy President shall take the chair whenever requested so to do by the President during a sitting of the Senate, without any formal communication to the Senate.
- (2) During the absence of the Deputy President, the President may call upon any one of the Temporary Chairs of Committees to relieve temporarily in the chair, without any formal communication to the Senate.

16 Absence of Clerk

In case of absence of the Clerk of the Senate, the Clerk's duties shall be performed by the Deputy Clerk, or, should the latter be absent, by a Clerk Assistant.

CHAPTER 5

STANDING AND SELECT COMMITTEES

Standing committees

17 Procedure

- (1) A Procedure Committee, consisting of the President, the Deputy President, the Leader of the Government in the Senate, the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate and 6 senators, shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament, with power to act during recess and to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives.
- (2) If the Leader of the Government in the Senate or the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate is unable to attend a meeting of the committee, that senator may appoint a senator to act as a member of the committee at that meeting.
- (3) The committee may consider any matter relating to the procedures of the Senate referred to it by the Senate or by the President.
- (4) The Deputy President shall be the chair of the committee.

(amended 24 August 1994)

18 Privileges

- (1) A Committee of Privileges, consisting of 8 senators, shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament to inquire into and report upon matters of privilege referred to it by the Senate.
- (2) The committee shall have power to send for persons and documents, to move from place to place and to sit during recess.
- (3) The committee shall consist of 8 senators, 4 nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, 3 nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate and 1 nominated by a minority party and independent senators.
- (4) The committee shall elect as its chair a member nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate.

(amended 24 August 1994, 2 December 2013)

19 Appropriations and Staffing

- (1) A Standing Committee on Appropriations and Staffing shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament.
- (2) The committee shall inquire into:
 - (a) proposals for the annual estimates and the additional estimates for the Senate;

- (b) proposals to vary the staff structure of the Senate, and staffing and recruitment policies; and
 - (c) such other matters as are referred to it by the Senate.
- (3) The committee shall:
 - (a) in relation to the estimates—
 - (i) determine the amounts for inclusion in the parliamentary appropriation bills for the annual and the additional appropriations, and
 - (ii) report to the Senate upon its determinations prior to the consideration by the Senate of the relevant parliamentary appropriation bill;
 - (b) in relation to staffing—
 - (i) make recommendations to the President, and
 - (ii) report to the Senate on any matter;
 - (c) make an annual report to the Senate on the operations of the Senate's appropriations and staffing, and related matters;
 - (d) consider the administration and funding of security measures affecting the Senate and advise the President and the Senate as appropriate; and
 - (e) when conferring with a similar committee of the House of Representatives, consider the administration and funding of information and communications technology services for the Parliament, and advise the President and the Senate as appropriate.
- (4) The committee shall consist of the President and 8 other senators: the Leader of the Government in the Senate or a Senate minister nominated to represent the Leader of the Government in the Senate from time to time, and 3 other members of the government party nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, and the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or a senator nominated to represent the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate from time to time, and 3 other senators not being members of the government party, nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or by any minority groups or independent senators; and in the absence of agreement between the opposition and any minority groups or independent senators as to nominations, any question as to representation shall be determined by the Senate.
- (5) The committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees consisting of 3 or more of its members, and to refer to any such sub-committee any of the matters which the committee is empowered to consider.
- (6) The chair of the committee shall be the President, who may from time to time appoint another member of the committee to be deputy chair, who shall act as chair at any time when there is no chair or the chair is not present at a meeting of the committee.

- (7) Where the votes on any question before the committee are equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.
- (8) A senator not a member of the committee may attend and participate in its deliberations, and question witnesses, unless the committee orders otherwise, but shall not vote.
- (9) The committee and any sub-committee shall have power to send for persons and documents, to move from place to place, and to meet and transact business in public or private session and notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament or dissolution of the House of Representatives.
- (10) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(e), the committee shall have power to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives.
- (11) A daily Hansard shall be published of public proceedings of the committee.
- (12) The committee shall be provided with all necessary staff, facilities and resources.

20 Library

- (1) A Library Committee, consisting of the President and 6 senators, shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament, with power to act during recess, and to confer and sit as a joint committee with a similar committee of the House of Representatives.
- (2) The committee may consider any matter relating to the provision of library services to senators.
- (3) The President shall be the chair of the committee.

21 House

- (1) A House Committee, consisting of the President, the Deputy President and 5 senators, shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament, with power to act during recess, and to confer and sit as a joint committee with a similar committee of the House of Representatives.
- (2) The committee may consider any matter relating to the provision of facilities in Parliament House referred to it by the Senate or by the President.
- (3) The President shall be the chair of the committee.

(amended 24 August 1994, 13 November 2002)

22 Publications

- (1) A Publications Committee, consisting of 7 senators, shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament, with power to act during recess and to confer and sit as a joint committee with a similar committee of the House of Representatives.
- (2) All documents presented to the Senate which have not been ordered to be printed by either House of the Parliament shall stand referred to the committee, which shall make recommendations on the printing of documents.
- (3) When sitting with a similar committee of the House of Representatives, the committee shall also have power:
 - (a) to inquire into and report on the printing, publication and distribution of parliamentary and government publications and on such related matters as are referred to it by the relevant minister; and
 - (b) to send for persons and documents.
- (4) The committee shall elect as its chair a member nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate.

(amended 24 August 1994)

22A Senators' Interests

- (1) A Committee of Senators' Interests shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament:
 - (a) to inquire into and report upon the arrangements made for the compilation, maintenance and accessibility of a Register of Senators' Interests;
 - (b) to consider any proposals made by senators and others as to the form and content of the register;
 - (c) to consider any submissions made in relation to the registering or declaring of interests;
 - (d) to consider what classes of person, if any, other than senators ought to be required to register and declare their interests; and
 - (e) to make recommendations upon these and any other matters which are relevant.
- (2) (a) The membership of the committee shall as closely as possible reflect the composition of the Senate and, until modified by a subsequent resolution, shall consist of 8 senators, 3 nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, 4 nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate and 1 nominated by any minority groups or independent senators.

- (b) The nominations of the minority groups or independent senators shall be determined by agreement between the minority groups and independent senators, and, in the absence of agreement duly notified to the President, the question of the representation on the committee shall be determined by the Senate.
- (3) The committee shall elect as its chair one of its members nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate.
- (4) The quorum of the committee shall be 3 members.
- (5) The chair may from time to time appoint a member of the committee to be deputy chair, and the member so appointed shall act as chair of the committee when there is no chair or the chair is not present at a meeting of the committee.
- (6) Where votes on a question before the committee are equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.
- (7) The committee shall have power to send for persons or documents, but shall not exercise that power, nor undertake an investigation of the private interests of any person, except in accordance with a decision agreed to by not less than 3 members of the committee other than the chair.
- (8) The committee shall have power to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives.
- (9) The committee shall, as soon as practicable after 31 December in each year, prepare and table in the Senate a report on its operations during that year, and shall also have power to report from time to time.

(adopted 17 March 1994, amended 24 August 1994)

23 Regulations and Ordinances

- (1) A Standing Committee on Regulations and Ordinances shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament.
- (2) All regulations, ordinances and other instruments made under the authority of Acts of the Parliament, which are subject to disallowance or disapproval by the Senate and which are of a legislative character, shall stand referred to the committee for consideration and, if necessary, report.
- (3) The committee shall scrutinise each instrument to ensure:
 - (a) that it is in accordance with the statute;
 - (b) that it does not trespass unduly on personal rights and liberties;
 - (c) that it does not unduly make the rights and liberties of citizens dependent upon administrative decisions which are not subject to review of their merits by a judicial or other independent tribunal; and
 - (d) that it does not contain matter more appropriate for parliamentary enactment.

- (4) (a) The committee shall consist of 6 senators, 3 being members of the government party nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, and 3 being senators who are not members of the government party, nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or by any minority groups or independent senators.
- (b) The nominations of the opposition or any minority groups or independent senators shall be determined by agreement between the opposition and the minority groups or independent senators, and, in the absence of agreement duly notified to the President, the question of the representation on the committee shall be determined by the Senate.
- (5) The committee shall have power to send for persons and documents, and to sit during recess.
- (6) The committee shall elect as chair a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Government in the Senate.
- (7) The chair may from time to time appoint a member of the committee to be deputy chair, and the member so appointed shall act as chair of the committee when there is no chair or the chair is not present at a meeting of the committee.
- (8) Where votes on a question before the committee are equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.
- (9) The committee may appoint with the approval of the President counsel to advise the committee.

24 Scrutiny of Bills

- (1) (a) At the commencement of each Parliament, a Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Bills shall be appointed to report, in respect of the clauses of bills introduced into the Senate, or the provisions of bills not yet before the Senate, and in respect of Acts of the Parliament, whether such bills or Acts, by express words or otherwise:
 - (i) trespass unduly on personal rights and liberties;
 - (ii) make rights, liberties or obligations unduly dependent upon insufficiently defined administrative powers;
 - (iii) make rights, liberties or obligations unduly dependent upon non-reviewable decisions;
 - (iv) inappropriately delegate legislative powers; or
 - (v) insufficiently subject the exercise of legislative power to parliamentary scrutiny.

- (b) The committee, for the purpose of reporting on its terms of reference, may consider any proposed law or other document or information available to it, including an exposure draft of proposed legislation, notwithstanding that such proposed law, document or information has not been presented to the Senate.
- (c) The committee, for the purpose of reporting on term of reference (a)(iv), shall take into account the extent to which a proposed law relies on delegated legislation and whether a draft of that legislation is available to the Senate at the time the bill is considered
- (2) (a) The committee shall consist of 6 senators, 3 being members of the government party nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, and 3 being senators who are not members of the government party, nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or by any minority groups or independent senators.
- (b) The nominations of the opposition or any minority groups or independent senators shall be determined by agreement between the opposition and any minority groups or independent senators, and, in the absence of agreement duly notified to the President, the question of the representation on the committee shall be determined by the Senate.
- (3) The committee may appoint sub-committees consisting of 3 or more of its members, and refer to any such sub-committee any matters which the committee is empowered to consider.
- (4) The committee shall elect as chair a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate.
- (5) The committee shall elect as deputy chair a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Government in the Senate, and the member so elected shall act as chair of the committee when there is no chair or the chair is not present at a meeting of the committee.
- (6) When votes on a question before the committee are equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.
- (7) The committee and any sub-committee shall have power to send for persons and documents, to move from place to place, and to meet and transact business in public or private session and notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament or dissolution of the House of Representatives.
- (8) The committee may appoint with the approval of the President counsel to advise the committee.
- (8A) The committee shall be empowered to print from day to day any of its documents and evidence. A daily Hansard shall be published of public proceedings of the committee.
- (9) The committee may report from time to time its proceedings and evidence and any recommendations, and shall make regular reports of the progress of the proceedings of the committee.

24A Selection of Bills

- (1) A Selection of Bills Committee shall be appointed at the commencement of each Parliament to consider all bills introduced into the Senate or received from the House of Representatives, except bills which contain no provisions other than provisions appropriating revenue or moneys, and to report—
 - (a) in respect of each such bill, whether the bill should be referred to a legislative and general purpose standing committee; and
 - (b) in respect of each bill recommended for referral to a standing committee:
 - (i) the standing committee to which the bill should be referred,
 - (ii) the stage in the consideration of the bill at which it should be referred to the standing committee, and
 - (iii) the day which should be fixed for the standing committee to report on the bill.
- (2)
 - (a) The committee shall consist of the Government Whip and 2 other senators nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, the Opposition Whip and 2 other senators nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate, and the whips of any minority groups.
 - (b) The quorum of the committee shall be 4 members.
 - (c) The chair of the committee shall be the Government Whip, and the chair shall appoint from time to time a deputy chair to act as chair when the chair is not present at a meeting.
 - (d) In the event of votes on a question before the committee being equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.
- (3) Where the committee reports on any sitting day, the report shall be presented after the giving of notices of motion.
- (4) Following the presentation of a report by the committee, the chair of the committee, or a member of the committee on behalf of the chair, may move without notice a motion for the adoption of the report.
- (5) Amendments may be moved to a motion under paragraph (4), including amendments to refer to a standing committee any bill of the kind referred to in paragraph (1) which is not the subject of a motion moved pursuant to paragraph (4).
- (6) An amendment of the kind referred to in paragraph (5) shall specify—
 - (a) the standing committee to which the bill is to be referred;
 - (b) the stage in the consideration of the bill at which it is to be referred to the committee; and

- (c) the day on which the committee is to report.
- (7) On a motion moved pursuant to paragraph (4), a senator shall not speak for more than 5 minutes, and at the expiration of 30 minutes, if the debate be not sooner concluded, the President shall put the question on the motion and any amendments before the chair, but if a senator wishes to move a further amendment at that time, that amendment may be moved and shall be determined without debate.
- (8) Where a motion moved pursuant to paragraph (4) is agreed to with or without amendment, at the conclusion of the stage of the consideration of a bill referred to in the report adopted by that motion or in an amendment, the bill shall stand referred to the standing committee specified, and the further consideration of the bill shall be an order of the day for the day fixed for the presentation of the report of the standing committee.
- (9) In considering a bill referred to it pursuant to this standing order, a standing committee shall have no power to make amendments to the bill or requests for amendments, but may recommend amendments or requests for amendments which would be in order if proposed in a committee of the whole.
- (10) A report from a standing committee relating to a bill referred to it under this order shall be received by the Senate without debate, and consideration of the report deferred until the order of the day relating to the bill is called on.
- (11) Where:
- (a) the committee recommends that a bill be referred to a select committee; or
 - (b) a senator indicates that the senator intends to move to establish a select committee to consider a bill or to refer a bill to an existing select committee, this standing order shall have effect as if each reference to a standing committee included reference to a select committee.

(adopted 13 February 1997)

25 Legislative and general purpose

- (1) At the commencement of each Parliament, legislative and general purpose standing committees shall be appointed, as follows:

Community Affairs

Legislation Committee

 References Committee.

- (2) (a) The legislation committees shall inquire into and report upon estimates of expenditure in accordance with standing order 26, bills or draft bills referred to them by the Senate, annual reports in accordance with paragraph (20), and the performance of departments and agencies allocated to them.
 - (b) The references committees shall inquire into and report upon other matters referred to them by the Senate.
- (2A) The legislation committees, when examining bills or draft bills, shall take into account any comments on the bills published by the Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Bills.
- (3) References concerning departments and agencies shall be allocated to the committees in accordance with a resolution of the Senate allocating departments and agencies to the committees.
- (4) The committees shall inquire into and report upon matters referred to their predecessor committees appointed under this standing order and not disposed of by those committees, and in considering those matters may consider the evidence and records of those committees relating to those matters.
- (5) (a) Each legislation committee shall consist of 6 senators, 3 nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, 2 nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate and one nominated by minority groups and independent senators.
 - (b) Each references committee shall consist of 6 senators, 2 nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, 3 nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate, and one nominated by minority groups and independent senators.
- (6) (a) The committees to which minority groups and independent senators make nominations shall be determined by agreement between the minority groups and independent senators, and, in the absence of agreement duly notified to the President, any question of the representation on a committee shall be determined by the Senate.

- (b) The allocation of places on the committees amongst minority groups and independent senators shall be as nearly as practicable proportional to the numbers of those minority groups and independent senators in the Senate.
- (7)
 - (a) Senators may be appointed to the committees as substitutes for members of the committees in respect of particular matters before the committees.
 - (b) On the nominations of the Leader of the Government in the Senate, the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate and minority groups and independent senators, participating members may be appointed to the committees.
 - (c) Participating members may participate in hearings of evidence and deliberations of the committees, and have all the rights of members of committees, but may not vote on any questions before the committees.
 - (d) A participating member shall be taken to be a member of a committee for the purpose of forming a quorum of the committee if a majority of members of the committee is not present.
 - (e) If a member of a committee is unable to attend a meeting of the committee, that member may in writing to the chair of the committee appoint a participating member to act as a substitute member of the committee at that meeting. If the member is incapacitated or unavailable, a letter to the chair of a committee appointing a participating member to act as a substitute member of the committee may be signed on behalf of the member by the leader of the party or group on whose nomination the member was appointed to the committee.
- (8) A committee may appoint sub-committees consisting of 3 or more of its members, and refer to any such sub-committee any of the matters which the committee is empowered to consider.
- (9)
 - (a) Each legislation committee shall elect as its chair a member nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate, and as its deputy chair a member nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or by a minority group or independent senator.
 - (b) Each references committee shall elect as its chair a member nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate or a member of a minority group in the Senate, and as its deputy chair a member nominated by the Leader of the Government in the Senate.
 - (c) The chairs and deputy chairs to which members nominated by the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate and members of minority groups and independent senators are elected shall be determined by agreement between the opposition and minority groups and independent senators, and, in the absence of agreement duly notified to the President, any question of the allocation of chairs and deputy chairs shall be determined by the Senate.

- (d) The deputy chair shall act as the chair of the committee when the member elected as chair is absent from a meeting of the committee or the position of chair is temporarily vacant.
 - (e) When votes on a question before a committee are equally divided, the chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, shall have a casting vote.
 - (f) The chair, or the deputy chair when acting as chair, may appoint another member of a committee to act as chair during the temporary absence of both the chair and deputy chair at a meeting of the committee.
- (10) The chairs of the committees, together with the chairs of any select committees appointed by the Senate, shall constitute the Chairs' Committee, which may meet with the Deputy President in the chair, and may consider and report to the Senate on any matter relating to the operations of the committees.
- (11) Except as otherwise provided by the standing orders, the reference of a matter to a committee shall be on motion after notice, and such notice of motion may be given:
- (a) in the usual manner when notices are given; or
 - (b) at any other time by a senator:
 - (i) stating its terms to the Senate, when no other business is before the chair, or
 - (ii) delivering a copy to the Clerk, who shall report it to the Senate at the first opportunity;
- and shall be placed on the Notice Paper for the next sitting day as business of the Senate and, as such, shall take precedence of government and general business set down for that day.
- (12) Matters referred to the committees should relate to subjects which can be dealt with expeditiously.
- (13) A committee shall take care not to inquire into any matters which are being examined by a select committee of the Senate appointed to inquire into such matters and any question arising in this connection may be referred to the Senate for determination.
- (14) A committee and any sub-committee shall have power to send for persons and documents, to move from place to place, and to meet and transact business in public or private session and notwithstanding any prorogation of the Parliament or dissolution of the House of Representatives.
- (15) All documents received by a committee during an inquiry shall remain in the custody of the Senate after the completion of that inquiry.
- (16) A committee shall be empowered to print from day to day any of its documents and evidence. A daily Hansard shall be published of public proceedings of a committee.

- (17) A committee shall be provided with all necessary staff, facilities and resources and shall be empowered to appoint persons with specialist knowledge for the purposes of the committee, with the approval of the President.
- (18) A committee may report from time to time its proceedings and evidence taken and any recommendations, and shall make regular reports on the progress of its proceedings.
- (19) A committee may authorise the broadcasting of its public hearings, under such rules as the Senate provides.
- (20) Annual reports of departments and agencies shall stand referred to the legislation committees in accordance with an allocation of departments and agencies in a resolution of the Senate. Each committee shall:
 - (a) Examine each annual report referred to it and report to the Senate whether the report is apparently satisfactory.
 - (b) Consider in more detail, and report to the Senate on, each annual report which is not apparently satisfactory, and on the other annual reports which it selects for more detailed consideration.
 - (c) Investigate and report to the Senate on any lateness in the presentation of annual reports.
 - (d) In considering an annual report, take into account any relevant remarks about the report made in debate in the Senate.
 - (e) If the committee so determines, consider annual reports of departments and budget-related agencies in conjunction with examination of estimates.
 - (f) Report on annual reports tabled by 31 October each year by the tenth sitting day of the following year, and on annual reports tabled by 30 April each year by the tenth sitting day after 30 June of that year.
 - (g) Draw to the attention of the Senate any significant matters relating to the operations and performance of the bodies furnishing the annual reports.
 - (h) Report to the Senate each year whether there are any bodies which do not present annual reports to the Senate and which should present such reports.

(amended 24 August 1994, 13 February 1997, 11 November 1998, 3 December 1998, 13 February 2002, 19 November 2002, 14 August 2006: with effect from 11 September 2006, 13 May 2009: with effect on 14 May 2009, 29 September 2010, 8 February 2012, 13 November 2013)

26 Estimates

- (1) Annual and additional estimates, contained in the documents presenting the particulars of proposed expenditure and additional expenditure, shall be referred to the legislative and general purpose standing committees for examination and report.

- (2) The committees shall hear evidence on the estimates in public session.
- (3) Not more than 4 committees shall hear evidence on the estimates simultaneously.
- (4) When a committee hears evidence on the estimates, the chair shall, without motion, call on items of expenditure in the order decided upon and declare the proposed expenditure open for examination. If a senator has further explanations to seek, items of expenditure shall not be closed for examination unless the senator has agreed to submit written questions or the committee has agreed to schedule additional hearings for that purpose.
- (5) The committees may ask for explanations from ministers in the Senate, or officers, relating to the items of proposed expenditure.
- (6) The report of a committee on the estimates may propose the further consideration of any items.
- (7) A Hansard report of the committees' hearings of evidence on the estimates shall be circulated, in a manner similar to the daily Senate Hansards, as soon as practicable after each day's proceedings.
- (8) Participating membership of committees shall not have effect in respect of proceedings on estimates, other than the formation of a quorum, but any senator may attend a meeting of a committee in relation to estimates, question witnesses and participate in the deliberations of the committee at such a meeting and add a reservation to a report relating to estimates.
- (9) After a committee has considered proposed expenditure referred to it by the Senate and agreed to its report to the Senate, the committee shall fix:
 - (a) a day for the submission to the committee of any written answers or additional information relating to the proposed expenditure; and
 - (b) in respect of the annual estimates only, a day for the commencement of supplementary meetings of the committee to consider matters relating to the proposed expenditure.

The day fixed under subparagraph (9)(b) shall be not less than 10 days after the day fixed under subparagraph (9)(a).

- (10) A senator may lodge with a committee, not less than 3 working days before the day fixed under subparagraph (9)(b), notice of matters, relating to the written answers or additional information, or otherwise relating to the proposed expenditure referred to the committee, which the senator wishes to raise at the supplementary meetings of the committee. A notice shall be forwarded by the committee to the minister in the Senate responsible for the matters to which the notice relates.
- (11) A committee may determine at any time the number and duration of any supplementary meetings.
- (12) At a supplementary meeting, questions may be put to ministers or officers relating to matters of which notice has been given, and the proceedings of the committee shall be confined to those matters, but the committee shall otherwise conduct the proceedings in accordance with this standing order.

- (13) A committee may report to the Senate any recommendation for further action by the Senate arising from the committee's supplementary meetings.
- (14) Written questions relating to the estimates may be supplied to the secretaries of the committees, who shall distribute them to the relevant departments and to members of the committees. Answers shall be supplied to, and circulated by, the secretaries.

(amended 24 August 1994, 13 February 1997, 6 March 1997, 6 February 2001, 19 November 2002, 14 August 2006: with effect from 11 September 2006, 25 June 2014)

General committee provisions

27 Membership

- (1) Except as otherwise provided, the senators to serve on a committee shall be nominated by the mover, and if one senator so requires, they shall be selected by ballot.
- (2) A senator may be discharged from attending a committee and another senator appointed, either by nomination or ballot, after notice.
- (3) The President shall not be elected to any committee other than one of which the President is an ex officio member.
- (4) If the Deputy President is elected to serve on a committee and declines to do so, another senator shall be elected.
- (5) A senator shall not sit on a committee if the senator has a conflict of interest in relation to the inquiry of the committee.
- (6) Where a committee is empowered to appoint sub-committees, each sub-committee shall have at least one member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Government in the Senate and at least one member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate.

(amended 13 February 1997)

28 Time for reporting

On the appointment of every committee other than a standing committee a day shall be fixed for the reporting of its proceedings to the Senate, by which day the final report of the committee shall be presented by the chair, unless further time is moved for and granted.

29 Quorum

- (1) In each committee and sub-committee, unless otherwise provided, a quorum shall be:
 - (a) a majority of the members of the committee or sub-committee; or
 - (b) 2 members, where one member present was appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Government in the Senate and one member present was appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate.
- (2) If a senator draws attention to the lack of a quorum at a meeting of a committee, the proceedings shall be suspended until a quorum is present, or, if a quorum is not present after 15 minutes, the committee shall then be adjourned.

- (3) If within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting of a committee there is not a quorum, the senators present may retire, after entering their names in the minutes; and the secretary attending the committee shall convene a meeting for another time.

(amended 24 August 1994, 19 November 2002)

30 Meetings

- (1) The mover of a committee, if a member of it, shall fix the time for the first meeting of the committee; if the mover is not a member the secretary shall fix the time.
- (2) Notice of meetings subsequent to the first meeting shall be given by the secretary attending the committee:
 - (a) pursuant to resolution of the committee;
 - (b) on instruction of the chair; or
 - (c) upon a request by a quorum of members of the committee.
- (3) A committee is authorised to hold meetings by electronic communication without the members of the committee or witnesses being present in one place, provided that:
 - (a) when a committee deliberates, members of the committee constituting a quorum are able to speak to, and hear, each other contemporaneously;
 - (b) when a witness gives oral evidence, members of the committee constituting a quorum are able to hear the witness contemporaneously and to put questions to the witness in each other's hearing; and
 - (c) the chair of such a meeting takes care to ensure that a quorum is maintained during the meeting and that the standing orders and rules of the Senate are observed.

(amended 13 February 1997)

31 Chair

A committee, before transacting any business, shall elect one of its members to be chair, who, unless it is otherwise provided, shall have a deliberative vote only.

32 Proceedings

- (1) Unless it is otherwise provided, when the votes on any question before a committee are equally divided the question shall be negatived.
- (2) An entry shall be made in the minutes of proceedings of the names of the senators attending each committee meeting, of every motion or amendment proposed in the committee and the mover, and the names and votes of the senators voting in any division.

- (3) A committee may adjourn from time to time, and, by order of the Senate, from place to place, and may sit on those days over which the Senate is adjourned.

33 Meetings during sitting

- (1) A committee of the Senate and a joint committee of both Houses of the Parliament may meet during sittings of the Senate for the purpose of deliberating in private session, but shall not make a decision at such a meeting unless:
 - (a) all members of the committee are present; or
 - (b) a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Government in the Senate and a member appointed to the committee on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition in the Senate are present, and the decision is agreed to unanimously by the members present.
- (2) The restrictions on meetings of committees contained in paragraph (1) do not apply after the question for the adjournment of the Senate has been proposed by the President at the time provided on any day.
- (3) A committee shall not otherwise meet during sittings of the Senate except by order of the Senate.
- (4) Proceedings of a committee at a meeting contrary to this standing order shall be void.

(amended 24 August 1994, 14 May 2003)

34 Powers

- (1) The Senate may give a committee power to send for persons and documents, and a committee with that power may summon witnesses and require the production of documents.
- (2) The chair of a committee shall direct the secretary attending the committee to invite or summon witnesses and request or require the production of documents in accordance with the orders of the committee.

35 Witnesses

- (1) The examination of witnesses before a committee shall be conducted by the members of the committee in accordance with procedures agreed to by the committee, subject to the rules of the Senate.
- (2) The examination of witnesses shall be recorded in a transcript of evidence.

36 Public and private meetings

Persons other than members and officers of a committee may attend a public meeting of a committee but shall not attend a private meeting except by express invitation of the committee, and shall always be excluded when the committee is deliberating.

37 Disclosure of evidence and documents

- (1) The evidence taken by a committee and documents presented to it, which have not been reported to the Senate, shall not, unless authorised by the Senate or the committee, be disclosed to any person other than a member or officer of the committee.
- (2) A senator who wishes to refer to in camera evidence or unpublished committee documents in a dissenting report shall advise the committee of the evidence or documents concerned, and all reasonable effort shall be made by the committee to reach agreement on the disclosure of the evidence or documents for that purpose. If agreement is not reached, the senator may refer to the in camera evidence or unpublished documents in the dissent only to the extent necessary to support the reasoning of the dissent. Witnesses who gave the evidence or provided the documents in question shall, if practicable, be informed in advance of the proposed disclosure of the evidence or documents and shall be given reasonable opportunity to object to the disclosure and to ask that particular parts of the evidence or documents not be disclosed. The committee shall give careful consideration to any objection by a witness before making its decision. Consideration shall be given to disclosing the evidence or documents in such a way as to conceal the identity of persons who gave the evidence or provided the documents or who are referred to in the evidence or documents.
- (3)
 - (a) The President is authorised to permit any person to examine and copy evidence submitted to, or documents of, committees, which are in the custody of the Senate, which have not already been published by the Senate or its committees, and which have been in the Senate's custody for at least 10 years.
 - (b) If such evidence or documents were taken in camera or submitted on a confidential or restricted basis, disclosure shall not take place unless the evidence or documents have been in the custody of the Senate for at least 30 years, and, in the opinion of the President, it is appropriate that such evidence or documents be disclosed.
 - (c) The President shall report to the Senate the nature of any evidence or documents made available under this standing order and the person or persons to whom they have been made available.

(amended 13 February 1997, 29 April 1999)

38 Reports

- (1) The chair of a committee shall prepare a draft report and submit it to the committee.
- (2) After a draft report has been considered and agreed to by a committee, with or without amendment, a minority or dissenting report may be added to the report by any member or group of members, and any member or participating member may attach to the report relevant conclusions and recommendations of that member.

- (3) If any senator other than the chair submits a draft report to a committee, the committee shall first decide upon which report it will proceed.
- (4) After a draft report has been considered the whole or any part of it may be reconsidered and amended.
- (5) A report of a committee shall be signed and presented to the Senate by the chair.
- (6) By order of the Senate a committee may report from time to time its proceedings or evidence.
- (7) If the Senate is not sitting when a committee has prepared a report for presentation, the committee may provide the report to the President or, if the President is unable to act, to the Deputy President, or, if the Deputy President is unavailable, to any one of the Temporary Chairs of Committees, and, on the provision of the report:
 - (a) the report shall be deemed to have been presented to the Senate;
 - (b) the publication of the report is authorised by this standing order;
 - (c) the President, the Deputy President, or the Temporary Chair of Committees, as the case may be, may give directions for the printing and circulation of the report; and
 - (d) the President shall lay the report upon the table at the next sitting of the Senate.

(amended 24 August 1994, 13 February 1997)

39 Proceedings on report

- (1) Subject to standing order 62(4), on the presentation of a report of a committee no discussion shall take place, but the report and any documents accompanying it may be ordered to be printed.
- (2) Any proceeding on a report of a committee shall be by motion after notice.

40 Meetings with House of Representatives committees

- (1) A committee may not confer or sit with a committee of the House of Representatives except by order of the Senate.
- (2) When such an order has been made, it shall be communicated by message to the House of Representatives with a request that leave be given to the committee of that House to confer or sit with the committee of the Senate.
- (3) A committee permitted or directed to confer with a committee of the House of Representatives may confer by writing or orally.
- (4) Proceedings of a conference or joint sitting of a committee of the Senate and a committee of the House of Representatives shall be reported to the Senate by its committee.

41 List of committees

Lists of all committees, of the matters referred to them and of their reports shall be published in the Notice Paper.

42 Joint committees

- (1) A proposal for a joint committee of the Senate and the House of Representatives agreed to by the Senate shall be forwarded to the House of Representatives by message.
- (2) The proceedings of a joint committee shall be reported to the Senate by one of the senators appointed to serve on the committee.

CHAPTER 6

JOURNALS AND RECORDS OF THE SENATE

43 Publication of Journals and records

- (1) All proceedings of the Senate shall be recorded by the Clerk in the Journals of the Senate, shall be signed by the Clerk and, except in so far as they relate to a meeting of the Senate in private session, be published.
- (2) Business before the Senate shall be placed on the Notice Paper in accordance with the standing orders, and the Notice Paper shall be published.
- (3) Publication of the record of debate in the Senate, known as Parliamentary Debates and Hansard, is authorised by this standing order.

(amended 13 February 1997)

44 Custody of records

The custody of the Journals, records and all documents laid before the Senate shall be in the Clerk, and they shall not be taken from the chamber or Senate offices without the permission of the Senate.

CHAPTER 7

SENATORS' ROLL, ATTENDANCE AND PLACES OF SENATORS

45 Roll

- (1) A senators' roll for each state and territory shall be kept by the Clerk, showing the names of the senators, the dates of election, of taking the oath or affirmation of allegiance, of ceasing to be a senator and the cause.
- (2) Each senator shall sign the roll on the day on which the senator takes the oath or affirmation of allegiance.
- (3) When senators have been divided into 2 classes under the provisions of section 13 of the Constitution, the Clerk shall enter on the roll opposite the name of each senator the class to which the senator belongs.

46 Attendance of senators

For the purposes of section 20 of the Constitution, a record shall be kept in the Journals each day of senators who do not attend at some time during the sitting.

47 Leave of absence to senators

- (1) Leave of absence may be given by the Senate to a senator on motion after notice, stating the cause and period of absence. The notice of motion shall have precedence as business of the Senate.
- (2) A senator shall be excused from service in the Senate or on a committee so long as the senator has leave of absence.
- (3) A senator having leave of absence shall forfeit it by attending the Senate before the expiration of the leave.

48 Senators' seats

- (1) The front seats on the right of the President shall be reserved for ministers.
- (2) The front seats on the left of the President shall be reserved for leaders of parties and for opposition senators designated as having responsibility for particular matters.
- (3) In relation to seats other than front seats, senators shall be entitled to retain the seats occupied by them at the time of their taking their seats for the first time after their election so long as they continue senators without re-election.
- (4) Subject to this standing order and to any other order of the Senate, any question relating to the occupation of seats by senators shall be determined by the President.

CHAPTER 8

SITTINGS, QUORUM AND ADJOURNMENT OF THE SENATE

49 Meeting of Senate

The bells shall be rung for 5 minutes prior to the time appointed for a meeting of the Senate, and the President shall then take the chair.

50 Prayer and acknowledgement of country

The President, on taking the chair each day, shall read the following prayer:

Almighty God, we humbly beseech Thee to vouchsafe Thy special blessing upon this Parliament, and that Thou wouldst be pleased to direct and prosper the work of Thy servants to the advancement of Thy glory, and to the true welfare of the people of Australia.

Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The President shall then make an acknowledgement of country in the following terms:

I acknowledge the Ngunnawal and Ngambri peoples who are the traditional custodians of the Canberra area and pay respect to the elders, past and present, of all Australia's Indigenous peoples.

(amended 26 October 2010)

51 Quorum at commencement of sitting

- (1) If there is not a quorum present when the chair is taken at the time appointed for a meeting of the Senate, the bells shall be again rung for 5 minutes, and if there is still not a quorum present the President shall adjourn the Senate to the next sitting day.
- (2) A senator having entered the chamber at or after the time appointed for the meeting of the Senate shall not withdraw until a quorum is formed or the Senate adjourned.

52 Quorum during sitting

- (1) If it appears, on the report of a division of the Senate by the tellers, that a quorum is not present, the President shall adjourn the Senate till the next sitting day; and no decision of the Senate shall be considered to have been arrived at by such division.

- (2) When the President is informed by the Chair of Committees that a quorum is not present, the bells shall be rung for 4 minutes; the President shall then count the Senate, and if no quorum is then present, shall adjourn the Senate till the next sitting day; but if a quorum is then present, the President shall leave the chair and the committee resume.
- (3) If a senator draws attention to the lack of a quorum, the bells shall be rung for 4 minutes; the President shall then count the Senate, and, if a quorum is not present, shall adjourn the Senate till the next sitting day.
- (4) When the attention of the President, or of the Chair of Committees, has been called to the absence of a quorum, a senator shall not leave the chamber until the Senate has been counted by the President.
- (5) The doors of the Senate shall be unlocked when the President is counting the Senate.
- (6) When the Senate is adjourned for lack of a quorum the names of the senators present shall be entered in the Journals.
- (7) Time taken to form a quorum shall not be regarded as part of the amount of time allowed for a senator to speak in a debate or ask a question or for a debate.

(amended 13 February 1997)

53 Adjournment of Senate

- (1) Except where the standing orders provide for the President to adjourn the Senate without putting a question, the Senate can be adjourned only by its own resolution.
- (2) The adjournment of the Senate may be moved at any time by or on behalf of a minister.
- (3) The motion for the adjournment of the Senate may not be amended.
- (4) On the question for the adjournment of the Senate matters not relevant to the question may be debated.

54 Adjournment without motion

- (1) At the time specified for each sitting day, the President shall propose the question that the Senate do now adjourn, and that question shall be open to debate.
- (2) If the Senate is in committee at that time, the chair shall leave the chair and report to the Senate, and on such a report being made the President shall forthwith propose the question that the Senate do now adjourn, and that question shall be open to debate.
- (3) If the Senate or the committee is in division at that time the President shall not propose that question or the chair leave the chair till the result of the division has been declared.

- (4) If the consideration of government documents under standing order 61 or the consideration of committee reports under standing order 62(1) concludes before the expiration of the times provided, the question for the adjournment shall then be proposed.
- (5) Except on Tuesday debate on the question for the adjournment shall not exceed 40 minutes, and a senator shall not speak to that question for more than 10 minutes on any day. On Tuesday at the conclusion of debate, and on other days at the expiration of 40 minutes, at the conclusion of debate, or at the time specified for adjournment, whichever is the earlier, or if there is no debate, the President shall adjourn the Senate without putting the question.
- (6) On the question for the adjournment of the Senate on Tuesday, a senator shall speak to that question for not more than 5 minutes, except in accordance with the following paragraphs:
 - (a) if no other senator wishes to speak for up to 5 minutes, a senator who has not already spoken may speak for up to 10 minutes; and
 - (b) if no other senator wishes to speak under paragraph (a), a senator who has not already spoken may speak for up to 20 minutes.

(amended 13 February 1997, 7 December 1998, 28 August 2002, 10 March 2009, 11 February 2014)

CHAPTER 9

- (3) If a division is called for on Thursday after 4.30 pm, the matter before the Senate shall be adjourned until the next day of sitting at a time fixed by the Senate.

(amended 13 February 1997, 7 December 1998, 28 August 2002, 14 May 2003, 10 March 2009, 12 March 2013)

58 Business of the Senate

The following business shall be placed on the Notice Paper as business of the Senate, and shall take precedence of government and general business for the day on which it is set down for consideration:

- (a) A motion for leave of absence to a senator.
- (b) A motion concerning the qualification of a senator.
- (c) A motion to disallow, disapprove, or declare void and of no effect any instrument made under the authority of any Act of Parliament which provides for the instrument to be subject to disallowance or disapproval by either House of the Parliament, or subject to a resolution of either House of the Parliament declaring the instrument to be void and of no effect.
- (d) An order of the day for the presentation of a report from a committee.
- (e) A motion to refer a matter to a standing committee.

59 Government and general business

Government business shall take precedence of general business, except that general business shall take precedence of government business on Thursday at the time provided, for a period not exceeding 2½ hours, and general business orders of the day shall take precedence of general business notices of motion on alternate Thursdays.

(amended 13 February 1997)

60 Reports of committees—precedence

A motion for the consideration or adoption of the report of a committee of the Senate and any government statement on such a report shall take precedence of any other general business on the day on which it is set down for consideration.

61 Consideration of government documents

- (1) (a) On Tuesday and Wednesday, documents presented by a minister shall be considered pursuant to this standing order at the time provided.

- (b) Immediately after prayers on any day when consideration of government documents occurs, a minister may present documents by handing them to the Clerk without any announcement to the Senate, and the presentation of such documents shall be reported to the Senate by the President when the consideration of government documents is called on under this standing order.
 - (c) Documents presented on Monday may be considered on Tuesday after the documents presented on that day, and documents presented on Monday and Tuesday and not called on on Tuesday may be considered on Wednesday after documents presented on that day.
- (2) When documents are called on by the President pursuant to this standing order a motion may be moved without notice that the Senate take note of one or several of them.
- (3) The debate on any motion moved pursuant to this standing order shall be conducted as follows:
 - (a) a senator shall not speak for more than 5 minutes;
 - (b) if debate pursuant to this standing order is not concluded it shall be interrupted after 30 minutes;
 - (c) if the debate is adjourned or interrupted, the resumption of the debate shall be an order of the day for the Thursday of that week at the time for the consideration of government documents under general business, or, if it is so ordered, for the next day of sitting; and
 - (d) on Thursdays, at the time provided, when an order of the day is called on under this standing order senators who have previously spoken to that order of the day may speak again for not more than 5 minutes, and debate under this standing order at that time shall not exceed 60 minutes.
- (4) Where a document is presented but is not called on under paragraph (1), the consideration of that document shall be made an order of the day for the next day on which general business is considered without any question being put, and where that order of the day is called on at that time, a motion may be moved without notice to take note of that document.
- (5) Where consideration of a document is an order of the day in accordance with paragraph (4), it shall remain an order of the day for each succeeding day on which general business is considered till:
 - (a) the order of the day is called on and no motion to take note of the document is moved;
 - (b) a motion to take note of the document is determined; or
 - (c) the order of the day is discharged from the Notice Paper, whichever first occurs.

- (6) Where debates on motions moved under the provisions of this standing order are adjourned or interrupted and are called on in the normal course of business, senators who have spoken to the motions under the provisions of this standing order may speak again for the time allowed by the standing orders for that business.

(amended 13 February 1997, 11 May 2004)

62 Consideration of committee reports and government responses and Auditor-General's reports

- (1) Where in any week there are orders of the day for the resumption of debate on motions for the consideration or adoption of reports of committees or government responses to such reports:
- (a) on Thursday at the time provided orders of the day relating to reports of committees or government responses presented to the Senate during that week shall be severally called on, in the order in which the respective reports or government responses were presented;
 - (b) if there are no orders of the day relating to committee reports or government responses presented during that week, or if debate on motions relating to such reports or government responses concludes before the expiration of 60 minutes, orders of the day relating to committee reports or government responses presented prior to that week shall then be severally called on in an order which is the reverse of the order in which the respective reports or government responses were presented;
 - (c) in any debate on such motions so called on, each senator may speak for not more than 10 minutes; and
 - (d) any debate pursuant to this standing order shall be interrupted at the expiration of 60 minutes.
- (2) Reports of the Auditor-General in respect of which no motion is moved on their presentation, and orders of the day for adjourned debates on such reports, shall be placed on the Notice Paper for consideration on Thursday at the time for the consideration of committee reports and government responses under general business, after those reports and responses.
- (3) Where debate on a motion under the provisions of this standing order is adjourned or interrupted, senators who have spoken to the motion under the provisions of this standing order may speak again to the motion for the time allowed by the standing orders when the debate on the motion is again called on in the normal course of business.
- (4) (a) If a committee report is presented at the time provided on Wednesday or Thursday, a motion may be moved relating to the report.
- (b) A senator speaking to such a motion shall not speak for more than 10 minutes, and debate on all such motions shall not exceed 60 minutes.

- (c) If a debate is not concluded at the expiration of that time the debate shall be made an order of the day for Thursday at the time for consideration of committee reports.

(amended 14 October 1991, 13 February 1997, 10 May 2000)

63 Presentation of documents

Documents ordered to be presented, returns, and reports of committees may be presented at any time when no other business is before the Senate.

64 New business

No new business shall be commenced after the question for the adjournment of the Senate has been first put on any sitting day.

65 Government business on Notice Paper

Ministers may arrange the order of their notices of motion and orders of the day on the Notice Paper as they think fit.

66 Formal motions

- (1) At the time provided for formal motions the President shall inquire with respect to each motion of which notice has been given for the day, at the request of the senator who gave the notice, whether there is any objection to its being taken as a formal motion, and if no objection is taken by any senator, the motion shall be deemed to be a formal motion.
- (2) Formal motions shall take precedence of all other motions and orders of the day and shall be disposed of in the order in which they stand on the Notice Paper.
- (3) A formal motion shall be put and determined without amendment or debate.

(amended 13 February 1997)

67 Postponement of business

A senator who wishes to postpone a notice or order of the day of which the senator is in charge shall, before the time for postponement of business, deliver to the Clerk written notification of the postponement. At that time the Clerk shall read a list of such items, and they shall then be taken to be postponed accordingly, but, at the request of any senator, the question for the postponement of an item shall be put to the Senate for determination without amendment or debate.

(amended 13 February 1997, 30 November 1999)

68 Interruption of business

- (1) If any business before the Senate or a committee of the whole is interrupted by the operation of any standing or other order, such business may be dealt with at a later hour of the day, or shall be set down on the Notice Paper for the next day of sitting.

- (2) Where an order of the Senate specifies a time for the consideration of a matter, at the specified time:
- (a) if a question is before the Senate consideration of that question shall be interrupted, a senator speaking shall be taken to have leave to continue the senator's speech, and resumption of debate on that question shall be made an order of the day for a later hour of the day without any question being put;
 - (b) if the Senate is in committee the chair shall report progress, and further consideration of the business before the committee shall be made an order of the day for a later hour of the day without any questions being put; or
 - (c) if a vote is being taken the vote shall be completed and the procedures in paragraph (a) or (b) then followed as appropriate.

PETITIONS

69 Presentation of petitions

- (1) A petition shall be lodged with the Clerk, at least 3 hours before the meeting of the Senate at which it is proposed to have it presented, and in order to be presented must bear the Clerk's certificate that it is in conformity with the standing orders.
- (2) At the time provided the Clerk shall make an announcement that petitions have been lodged. At the commencement of the sitting a list shall be circulated indicating in respect of each petition the senator who presents it, the number of signatures, and the subject matter of the petition.
- (3) Every petition presented shall be deemed to have been received by the Senate unless a motion, moved at the time provided, that a petition be not received, is agreed to.
- (4) The texts of the petitions received shall be printed in Hansard.
- (5) A petition shall not be presented after notices of motion have been given, but when the mover of a motion is called or when an order of the day is read for the first time, a petition referring to it may be presented.
- (6) A senator presenting a petition shall place the senator's name at the beginning of it, together with a statement of the number of signatures.
- (7) Petitions may be presented to the Senate only by a senator, and a senator may not present a petition from that senator.
- (8) A petition not certified under paragraph (1) may be presented in accordance with this standing order with the approval of the President if the President is satisfied that exceptional circumstances warrant its presentation.

(amended 6 March 1997)

70 Form of petitions

- (1) A petition shall be fairly written, typed, or printed without interlineation or erasure.
- (2) A petition shall contain a request for action by the Senate or the Parliament.
- (3) A petition shall be in the English language, or be accompanied by a translation, certified by the senator who presents it to be correct.
- (4) Every signature shall be written on a page bearing the petition, and shall not be pasted upon or otherwise transferred to it.
- (5) A petition shall be signed by the petitioners with their names, but may be signed by a person for another in case of incapacity by sickness. A person not able to write may make a mark in the presence of a witness, who shall sign as such.

- (6) Petitions of corporations may be made under their common seal.
- (7) No letters, affidavits, or other documents shall be attached to a petition.

71 Content of petitions

- (1) No reference shall be made in a petition to any debate in Parliament of the same session, unless it is strictly relevant to the petition.
- (2) A petition shall be respectful, decorous, and temperate in its language, and shall not contain language disrespectful to any legislature or irrelevant statements.
- (3) A senator presenting a petition shall be acquainted with the contents of it, and shall take care that it is in conformity with the rules and orders of the Senate.

CHAPTER 11

QUESTIONS SEEKING INFORMATION

72 Questions without notice

- (1) At the time provided questions may be put to ministers relating to public affairs.
- (2) A question may be put to the President in relation to matters for which the President has responsibility.
- (3)
 - (a) The asking of each primary question shall not exceed one minute and answers to them shall not exceed two minutes.
 - (b) Two supplementary questions shall be allowed to each questioner, each supplementary question shall be limited to thirty seconds and the answers to them shall be limited to one minute each.
 - (c) Answers shall be directly relevant to each question.
- (4)
 - (a) After question time motions may be moved without notice to take note of answers given that day to questions.
 - (b) A senator may speak for not more than 5 minutes on such a motion.
 - (c) The time for debate on all motions relating to answers to questions without notice on any day shall not exceed 30 minutes.

(amended 13 February 1997, 10 March 2009, 24 June 2014)

73 Rules for questions

- (1) The following rules shall apply to questions:
questions shall not contain:
 - (a) statements of fact or names of persons unless they are strictly necessary to render the question intelligible and can be authenticated;
 - (b) arguments;
 - (c) inferences;
 - (d) imputations;
 - (e) epithets;
 - (f) ironical expressions; or
 - (g) hypothetical matter;questions shall not ask:
 - (h) for an expression of opinion;

- (i) for a statement of the government's policy; or
 - (j) for legal opinion;
- questions shall not refer to:
- (k) debates in the current session; or
 - (l) proceedings in committee not reported to the Senate.
- (2) Questions shall not anticipate discussion upon an order of the day or other matter which appears on the Notice Paper.
 - (3) The President may direct that the language of a question be changed if it is not in conformity with the standing orders.
 - (4) In answering a question, a senator shall not debate it.

74 Questions on notice

- (1) Notice of a question shall be given by a senator signing and delivering it to the Clerk, fairly written, printed, or typed. Notice may be given by one senator on behalf of another.
- (2) The Clerk shall place notices of questions on the Notice Paper in the order in which they are received.
- (3) The reply to a question on notice shall be given by delivering it to the Clerk, a copy shall be supplied to the senator who asked the question, and the publication of the reply is then authorised.
- (4) A senator who has received a copy of a reply pursuant to this standing order may, by leave, immediately after questions without notice, ask the question and have the reply read in the Senate.
- (5) If a minister does not answer a question on notice asked by a senator within 30 days of the asking of that question, or if a question taken on notice during a hearing of a legislative and general purpose standing committee considering estimates remains unanswered after the day set for answering the question, and a minister does not, within that period, provide to the senator who asked the question an explanation satisfactory to that senator of why an answer has not yet been provided:
 - (a) at the conclusion of question time on any day after that period, the senator may ask the relevant minister for such an explanation; and
 - (b) the senator may, at the conclusion of the explanation, move without notice—That the Senate take note of the explanation; or
 - (c) in the event that the minister does not provide an explanation, the senator may, without notice, move a motion with regard to the minister's failure to provide either an answer or an explanation.

(amended 13 February 1997, 8 September 2003, 9 November 2005, 14 August 2006: with effect from 11 September 2006, 27 June 2012: with effect from the first sitting day in 2013, 25 June 2014)

CHAPTER 12

MATTERS OF PUBLIC IMPORTANCE AND URGENCY

75 Proposal for debate

- (1) A senator may:
 - (a) propose that a matter of public importance be submitted to the Senate for discussion; or
 - (b) move a motion, without notice—That in the opinion of the Senate the following is a matter of urgency: [here to be specified the matter of urgency].
- (2) The senator proposing the matter of public importance or the motion to debate the matter of urgency shall hand to the President, not later than 12.30 pm on the day to which the proposal relates, a written statement of the proposed matter of public importance or urgency.
- (3) If the proposal is in order, the President shall read it to the Senate at the time provided.
- (4) In order to proceed the proposal must be supported by 4 senators, not including the proposer, rising in their places.
- (5) If more than one proposed matter of public importance or urgency is presented for the same day, priority shall be given to that which is first handed to the President. If 2 or more proposals are presented simultaneously, the proposal to be reported shall be determined by lot. No other proposal shall be read to the Senate that day.
- (6) A motion to debate a matter of urgency may not be amended.
- (7) Debate on a matter of public importance or urgency motion shall not exceed 60 minutes, or, if no motions are moved after question time to take note of answers, 90 minutes, and a senator shall not speak to such a matter or motion for more than 10 minutes. At the expiration of the time for a debate the question on a matter of urgency shall be put.
- (8) At any time during the discussion of a matter of public importance, a motion may be made by any senator, but not so as to interrupt another senator speaking, that the business of the day be called on. No amendment, adjournment or debate shall be allowed on such motion, which shall be put immediately by the President, and if the motion is agreed to, the business of the day shall be proceeded with immediately.

CHAPTER 13

NOTICES OF MOTION

76 Giving of notices

- (1) Notice of motion may be given by a senator stating its terms to the Senate and delivering at the table a copy of the notice, or by delivering the copy only. A copy of a notice shall be legible, signed by the senator and show the day proposed for moving the motion.
- (2) If a notice of motion is given which contains matters not relevant to each other, the President may instruct the Clerk to divide the notice into 2 or more notices.
- (3) Notices shall be entered by the Clerk on the Notice Paper in the order in which they are delivered at the table.
- (4) A senator may, on request, give notice for any other senator not then present, and 2 or more senators may place their names on a notice as movers.
- (5) A notice of motion shall not be given after the Senate has proceeded to the business of the day, except by leave of the Senate.
- (6) A senator giving notice of motion in general terms shall deliver at the table a copy of the complete motion at least one day prior to that for which the notice has been given.
- (7) A notice shall consist of a clear and succinct proposed resolution or order of the Senate relating to matters within the competence of the Senate, and shall not contain statements, quotations or other matter not strictly necessary to make the proposed resolution or order intelligible.
- (8) The President may delete extraneous matter from notices and may require a senator giving a notice contrary to the standing orders to reframe the notice.
- (9) A senator may not give 2 notices of motion consecutively, if another senator has a notice to give.
- (10) No notice or contingent notice shall have effect for the day on which it is given.

(amended 23 August 1990, 30 November 1999)

77 Alteration and withdrawal of notices

- (1) A senator may change the day for moving a motion by giving notice of the motion for any day subsequent to that first named, but not earlier, subject to the same rules as other notices of motion.
- (2) After a notice of motion has been given, the terms of it may be altered by the senator delivering at the table an amended notice, either on the same day or any day prior to that for proceeding with the motion.

- (3) A notice may be withdrawn when called on or at any time before the motion is moved.

78 Disallowance motions

- (1) A senator who wishes to withdraw a notice of motion standing in the senator's name to disallow, disapprove, or declare void and of no effect any instrument made under the authority of any Act which provides for the instrument to be subject to disallowance or disapproval by either House of the Parliament, or subject to a resolution of either House of the Parliament declaring the instrument to be void and of no effect, shall give notice to the Senate of the intention to withdraw the notice of motion.
- (2) Such notice of intention shall be given in the same manner as a notice of motion, shall indicate the stage in the routine of business of the Senate at which it is intended to withdraw the notice of motion, and shall not have effect for the day on which it is given; except that, if given on a day on which by force of the statute the instrument shall be deemed to be disallowed if the motion has not been withdrawn or otherwise resolved, or on a day on which by force of the statute the motion must be passed in order to be effective, such notice of intention may have effect for a later hour of that day.
- (3) If another senator, at any time after the giving of such notice of intention and before the withdrawal of the notice of motion, indicates to the Senate an objection to the withdrawal of the notice of motion, that senator's name shall be put on the notice of motion, the name of the senator who wishes to withdraw the notice of motion shall be removed from it, and it shall not be withdrawn; but if no senator so objects to the withdrawal of the notice of motion, it may be withdrawn in accordance with such notice of intention.

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS

79 Notice required

Except by leave of the Senate, or as otherwise provided by the standing orders, a motion shall not be moved unless it is in accordance with a notice duly given.

80 Disposal of motions

- (1) Motions shall be called on in the order in which they appear on the Notice Paper.
- (2) If, at the adjournment of the Senate, a motion on the Notice Paper has not been called on, or has been moved but not determined, it shall be set down on the Notice Paper for the next sitting day.

81 Privilege motions

A matter of privilege, unless suddenly arising in relation to proceedings before the Senate, shall not be brought before the Senate except in accordance with the following procedures:

- (1) A senator intending to raise a matter of privilege shall notify the President, in writing, of the matter.
- (2) The President shall consider the matter and determine, as soon as practicable, whether a motion relating to the matter should have precedence of other business, having regard to the criteria set out in any relevant resolution of the Senate.
- (3) The President's decision shall be communicated to the senator, and, if the President thinks it appropriate, or determines that a motion relating to the matter should have precedence, to the Senate.
- (4) A senator shall not take any action in relation to, or refer to, in the Senate, a matter which is under consideration by the President in accordance with this resolution.
- (5) Where the President determines that a motion relating to a matter should be given precedence of other business, the senator may, at any time when there is no other business before the Senate, give notice of a motion to refer the matter to the Committee of Privileges, and that motion shall take precedence of all other business on the day for which the notice is given.
- (6) A determination by the President that a motion relating to a matter should not have precedence of other business does not prevent a senator in accordance with other procedures taking action in relation to, or referring to, that matter in the Senate, subject to the rules of the Senate.
- (7) Where notice of a motion is given under paragraph (5) and the Senate is not expected to meet within the period of one week occurring immediately after the day on which the notice is given, the motion may be moved on that day.

82 Motions concerning contempts

A motion to:

- (a) determine that a person has committed a contempt; or
- (b) impose a penalty upon a person for a contempt, shall not be moved unless notice of the motion has been given not less than 7 days before the day for moving the motion.

83 Moving of motions

- (1) A senator at the request of another senator who has given notice may move the motion of which notice has been given.
- (2) If a senator fails to move a motion of which notice has been given when it is called on, it shall be withdrawn from the Notice Paper.
- (3) After a motion has been moved, it is in the possession of the Senate, and cannot be withdrawn without leave.
- (4) A motion which has been superseded, or, by leave of the Senate, withdrawn, may be moved again during the same session.

84 Putting of question

- (1) When a motion has been moved, a question on it shall be proposed to the Senate by the President.
- (2) When the debate on a question is concluded, the President shall put the question to the Senate.
- (3) The President may order a complicated question to be divided.
- (4) A question being put shall be resolved in the affirmative or negative, by the majority of voices, “aye” or “no”.
- (5) The President shall state whether the “ayes” or “noes” have it, and if that opinion is challenged the question shall be decided by division.

85 Anticipatory motions

A motion or amendment shall not anticipate an order of the day or another motion of which notice has been given, unless the new motion or amendment provides a more effective method of proceeding.

86 Same question

- (1) A question shall not be proposed if it is the same in substance as any question which has been determined during the same session, unless the order, resolution, or vote on such question was determined more than 6 months previously or has been rescinded.
- (2) This standing order shall not prevent a motion for the disallowance of an instrument substantially the same in effect as one previously disallowed.

87 Rescission of order

An order, resolution, or vote of the Senate may be rescinded, but not during the same session unless 7 days' notice is given and at least one-half of the whole number of senators vote in favour of its rescission, except that to correct irregularities or mistakes one day's notice shall be sufficient.

88 Leave of the Senate

- (1) A motion otherwise requiring notice may be moved without notice by leave of the Senate.
- (2) Leave of the Senate is granted when no senator present objects to the moving of the motion or other course of action for which leave is sought.

89 Superseded question

A question may be superseded by the moving of motions for:

- (a) the adjournment of the Senate;
- (b) the adjournment of the debate;
- (c) the orders of the day to be called on; and
- (d) the previous question.

CHAPTER 15

AMENDMENTS

90 Moving of amendments

- (1) A question having been proposed may be amended:
 - (a) by leaving out words;
 - (b) by leaving out words in order to insert or add words; or
 - (c) by inserting or adding words.
- (2) An amendment to a question must be in writing and signed by the proposer.
- (3) An amendment must be relevant to the question to which it is proposed to be made.
- (4) The mover of a motion or a senator who has spoken in the debate may not move an amendment, and a senator may not move more than one amendment to a question.

91 Putting of amendments

- (1) In respect of every amendment the President shall put a question—That the amendment be agreed to.
- (2) An amendment proposed shall be disposed of before another amendment to the original question may be moved.
- (3) An amendment proposed may be withdrawn by leave of the Senate.
- (4) When amendments have been made the main question shall be put as amended.
- (5) When amendments have been proposed but not made the question shall be put as originally proposed.

92 Same amendment

An amendment to a question may not be moved if it is the same in substance as an amendment already determined to the same question, or would have the effect only of reversing an amendment already made.

93 Amendments to amendments

Amendments may be proposed to a proposed amendment as if the proposed amendment were an original question.

CHAPTER 16

PREVIOUS QUESTION

94 Form of previous question

- (1) The previous question shall be put in the form—That this question be not now put.
- (2) The previous question cannot be moved to an amendment, nor in committee, nor can an amendment be moved to it.
- (3) The previous question temporarily supersedes the original question and any amendment, but in debating it the original question and any amendment may be debated.

95 Determination of previous question

- (1) If the Senate resolves the previous question in the affirmative, thereby resolving that the original question be not now put, the original question and any amendment before the Senate are thereby disposed of, and the Senate shall proceed to the next business.
- (2) If the Senate resolves the previous question in the negative, thereby resolving that the original question before the Senate be now put, the question and any amendment shall be put forthwith, without debate.
- (3) When the previous question is moved on any question consisting of a series of motions which are under discussion as one motion, with the understanding that the questions be put on the motions separately, the decision of the previous question, before the question on the first of the motions is put, shall be taken to be conclusive in respect of all of the motions.

CHAPTER 17

ORDERS OF THE DAY

96 Source of orders

An order of the day is a matter which the Senate has ordered to be taken into consideration on a particular day.

97 Disposal of orders

- (1) Orders of the day shall be called on and disposed of in the order in which they stand on the Notice Paper.
- (2) If, at the adjournment of the Senate, any orders of the day on the Notice Paper have not been called on or determined, they shall be set down on the Notice Paper as business for the next sitting day.
- (3) An order of the day, in the absence of the senator in charge of it, may, at the request of that senator, be moved or postponed by any other senator.
- (4) An order of the day may be discharged by motion on notice whether or not it has been debated.

CHAPTER 18

DIVISIONS

98 Calling for divisions

- (1) When the President states, on putting a question, that the “ayes” or the “noes” have it, that opinion may be challenged by senators calling “divide”.
- (2) A division may be called for only by senators who have given their voices against the majority as declared by the President.
- (3) At any time before the tellers are appointed a call for a division may be withdrawn by leave of the Senate, the division shall not be proceeded with, and the decision of the President which was challenged shall stand.

99 Voting by President

- (1) The President and the Deputy President and Chair of Committees shall in all cases be entitled to a vote.
- (2) The President and the Deputy President and Chair of Committees when in the chair may vote by stating to the Senate or to the committee whether they vote with the “ayes” or with the “noes”.

100 Voting in divisions

- (1) A division may be called for only by 2 or more senators, but one senator calling for a division shall be entitled to have that senator’s vote recorded in the Journals.
- (2) A senator calling for a division shall not leave the chamber until the division has taken place.
- (3) A senator shall vote in a division in accordance with that senator’s vote by voice.
- (4) A senator shall not be entitled to vote in a division unless the senator is present when the question is put with the doors locked.

101 Taking of divisions

- (1) Before a division is taken the Clerk shall ring the division bells for 4 minutes.
- (2) The doors shall be closed and locked as soon after the bells cease ringing as the President directs, and then no senator shall enter or leave the chamber until after the division.
- (3) When successive divisions are taken, and there is no debate after the first division, the bells for each ensuing division shall be rung for one minute only.

- (4) When the doors have been locked, and senators are in their places, the President shall state the question to the Senate, and then direct the “ayes” to proceed to the right of the chair, and the “noes” to the left, and shall appoint one teller for each side.
- (5) Every senator present when the question is stated shall vote, except the President, or the Chair of Committees in the chair of a committee, for whom voting shall be optional.
- (6) When a division has been called for, senators shall take seats on the side of the chamber on which they intend to vote, and shall not move from those seats after tellers have been appointed until the result of the division has been declared.

102 Recording of divisions

- (1) The name of every senator voting shall be taken down by the clerks at the direction of the tellers, who shall sign their respective lists, and present them to the President, who shall declare the result to the Senate.
- (2) If there is only one senator on a side on a division, the President, without completing the division, shall forthwith declare the decision of the Senate.
- (3) Divisions in the Senate and in committee shall be recorded in the Journals.

103 Points of order

While the Senate is dividing senators may speak sitting to a point of order arising out of or during the division.

104 Correction of divisions

In case of confusion or error concerning the numbers reported, unless it can be otherwise corrected, the Senate shall proceed to another division.

105 Divisions in committee

Divisions shall be called for and taken in committee in the same manner as in the Senate.

CHAPTER 19

ROLL CALL

106 Notice of order

A notice for an order for a roll call of the Senate, as soon as practicable after the notice is given, shall be forwarded by the Clerk to each senator.

107 Order for roll call

- (1) An order for a roll call shall be made not less than 21 days before the day specified in the order as the day for the roll call.
- (2) An order for a roll call may be postponed or discharged as with other orders of the day.
- (3) An order for a roll call shall be the first order of the day for the day on which the roll call is to take place.

108 Conduct of roll call

- (1) When the order of the day for a roll call is read, the bells shall be rung as for a division.
- (2) The names of all senators shall then be called by the Clerk in alphabetical order and senators present shall answer their names.
- (3) The name of a senator who has not answered shall be called again, and if the senator does not then answer the President shall report the absence of the senator.

109 Senators not present

A senator reported as absent after a roll call may, on motion without notice, be excused from attendance or be ordered to attend at a future time.

110 Roll call for Constitution alteration bills

- (1) A roll call shall take place immediately before the third reading of a bill to alter the Constitution.
- (2) Where the third readings of more than one bill to alter the Constitution are determined in immediate succession, one roll call may be made in respect of all the bills.

CHAPTER 20

BILLS

111 Initiation

- (1) A bill, unless received from the House of Representatives, shall be initiated by a motion for leave to bring in the bill, specifying its intended title, or by a motion for a committee of not less than 2 senators to prepare and bring it in, or by an order of the Senate.
- (2) The senator having leave, or one of the committee appointed to bring in a bill, shall present a signed copy to the Senate.
- (3) The title shall agree with the order of leave, and no clause shall be inserted in a bill which is irrelevant to its title.
- (4) A bill not in accordance with the order of leave, or with the rules and orders of the Senate, shall be ordered to be withdrawn.
- (5) Where a bill:
 - (a) is first introduced in the Senate by a minister in a period of sittings; or
 - (b) is received from the House of Representatives and was introduced in that House in the same period of sittings; or
 - (c) is received from the House of Representatives after the expiration of two-thirds of the total number of days of sitting of the Senate scheduled for that period of sittings,and a motion is moved for the second reading of the bill, debate on that motion shall be adjourned at the conclusion of the speech of the senator moving the motion and resumption of the debate shall be made an order of the day for the first day of sitting in the next period of sittings without any question being put.
- (6) Paragraph (5) does not apply to a bill introduced in the Senate or received from the House of Representatives within the first two-thirds of the total number of days of sitting of the Senate scheduled for the first period of sittings after a general election of the House of Representatives, but consideration of such a bill shall not be resumed after the second reading is moved in the Senate unless 14 days have elapsed after the first introduction of the bill in either House.
- (7) Paragraph (5) does not apply to a bill received by the Senate again in the circumstances described in the first paragraph of section 57 of the Constitution.
- (8) In paragraphs (5) and (6) “period of sittings” means a period during which the Senate adjourns for not more than 20 days.

(amended 13 February 1997, 14 May 2003)

112 First reading

- (1) Except in respect of bills which the Senate may not amend, the question— That this bill be now read a first time – shall be put by the President immediately after the bill has been received, and shall be determined without amendment or debate.
- (2) In respect of bills which the Senate may not amend, the question for the first reading may be debated, and in the debate matters relevant and not relevant to the subject matter of the bill may be discussed. A senator shall not speak for more than 15 minutes in that debate.
- (3) On every order for the reading of a bill the title only shall be read.
- (4) After the first reading, a future day shall be appointed for the second reading of the bill, and the bill shall be printed.

(amended 13 February 1997)

113 Expedited proceedings on bills

- (1) A senator may present a bill or 2 or more bills after the Senate has agreed to a motion upon notice, setting out the title of the bill or bills, that the bill or bills be introduced.
- (2) After the presentation of a bill or bills, or after the receipt of a message or messages from the House of Representatives forwarding a bill or bills for concurrence, a motion may be moved without notice containing any of the following provisions:
 - (a) that the bill or bills may proceed without formalities (this shall have the effect of suspending any requirements for stages of the passage of the bill or bills to take place on different days, for notice of motions for such stages, and for the printing and certification of the bill or bills during passage);
 - (b) in respect of 2 or more bills, that the bills may be taken together (this shall have the effect of allowing the questions for the several stages of the passage of the bills (or any of them) to be put in one motion at each stage, the consideration of the bills (or any of them) together in committee of the whole, and the reading of the short titles only on every order for the reading of the bills, the words in parentheses being applicable where there are more than 2 bills);
 - (c) that the bill, or, where the provision referred to in subparagraph (2)(b) is agreed to, the bills, be now read a first time.
- (3) Where a motion is moved containing 2 or more of the provisions set out in paragraph (2), at the request of any senator the motion shall be divided and the provisions put as separate motions.

114 Second reading

- (1) On the order of the day being read for the second reading of a bill, the question shall be proposed—That this bill be now read a second time.
- (2) An amendment may be moved to that question by leaving out “now” and inserting “this day 6 months”, which, if carried, shall finally dispose of the bill.
- (3) Other amendments may be moved to the question for the second reading provided that they are relevant to the bill.

115 Committal

- (1) After the second reading, a bill shall be considered in a committee of the whole immediately, unless:
 - (a) the bill is referred to a standing or select committee; or
 - (b) no senator has:
 - (i) circulated in the Senate a proposed amendment or request for amendment of the bill, or
 - (ii) required in debate or by notification to the chair that the bill be considered in committee of the whole.
- (2) After a bill has been read a second time a motion may be moved:
 - (a) without notice for referring the bill to a committee;
 - (b) on notice for an instruction to the committee of the whole.
- (3) The further consideration of a bill referred to a standing or select committee shall be an order of the day for:
 - (a) where a day is fixed for the report of the committee, that day; or
 - (b) where no day is fixed for the report of the committee, the sitting day next occurring after the day on which the committee reports on the bill.
- (4) (a) Where proposed expenditure has been considered and reported on by a legislative and general purpose standing committee, an appropriation bill authorising that proposed expenditure shall not be considered in committee of the whole, unless, prior to the further consideration of the bill subsequent to the second reading, a senator has circulated in the Senate a proposed amendment or request for amendment of the bill.

- (b) Where an appropriation bill is considered in committee of the whole in accordance with this paragraph:
 - (i) the only questions put by the chair shall be:
 - (A) that any amendment or request for amendment moved to the bill be agreed to, and
 - (B) that the bill be reported with any amendment or request for amendment agreed to by the committee; and
 - (ii) debate shall be confined to the purpose of any amendment or request for amendment moved to the bill.
 - (c) At any stage of the consideration of an appropriation bill, other than in committee of the whole, an amendment, other than an amendment or a request for an amendment to the bill, arising from a recommendation of a legislative and general purpose standing committee, may be moved to the question before the chair.
- (5) When the order of the day relating to a bill which is the subject of a committee report pursuant to standing order 24A is called on, the following procedures shall apply:
- (a) A motion may be moved without notice that the report of the committee be adopted (if the committee has recommended amendments to the bill, this motion shall have the effect of amending the bill accordingly, but may not be moved if other proposed amendments to the bill have been circulated in the Senate by a senator).
 - (b) If a motion under subparagraph (a) is moved, following the disposal of that motion a motion may be moved by a minister, or, in respect of a bill introduced into either House of the Parliament other than by a minister, by the senator in charge of the bill, that consideration of the bill be an order of the day for a future day, or that the bill not be further proceeded with.
 - (c) If no motion under subparagraph (a) or (b) is agreed to, a motion may be moved without notice that the bill again be referred to the committee for reconsideration, provided that such motion:
 - (i) indicates the matters which the committee is to reconsider, and
 - (ii) fixes the day for the further report of the committee, and if such motion is agreed to the bill shall stand referred to the committee, and the further consideration of the bill shall be an order of the day for the day fixed for the further report of the committee.

- (d) If no motion under subparagraph (b) or (c) is agreed to, consideration of the bill shall be resumed at the stage at which it was referred to the committee, provided that, if the consideration of the bill in committee of the whole has been concluded and the committee has recommended amendments to the bill or requests for amendments, the bill shall again be considered in committee of the whole.
- (6) On a motion on notice and a motion under this standing order to refer a bill to a committee, and on an amendment for that purpose to a question in respect of any stage in the passage of a bill after its second reading, a senator shall not speak for more than 5 minutes, and at the expiration of 30 minutes, if the debate be not sooner concluded, the President shall put the question on the motion and any amendments before the chair, but if a senator wishes to move a further amendment at that time, that amendment may be moved and shall be determined without debate.

(amended 14 October 1991, 13 February 1997, 3 December 2003, 14 August 2006: with effect from 11 September 2006)

116 Consideration in committee

In committee of the whole the preamble shall stand postponed without question put, and the clauses shall be read in their order separately by the chair, and on each clause the question shall be put by the chair, that the clause stand as printed. The words of enactment at the head of the bill shall not be put to the committee.

117 Order of consideration

- (1) The following order shall be followed in considering a bill:
 - (a) Clauses as printed, and proposed new clauses.
 - (b) Postponed clauses (not having been specially postponed till consideration of other clauses).
 - (c) Schedules as printed.
 - (d) Proposed new schedules.
 - (e) Preamble.
 - (f) Title.
- (2) In reconsidering a bill, the same order shall be observed as far as possible.
- (3) In reading the clauses of a bill it shall be sufficient to read the numbers only.
- (4) The discussion shall be confined to the clause or amendment before the committee.
- (5) A clause may be postponed, whether or not it has been amended.

118 Amendments in committee

- (1) An amendment may be made to any part of a bill, provided it is relevant to the subject matter of the bill and otherwise in conformity with the rules and orders of the Senate.
- (2) No new clause or amendment shall be proposed which is substantially the same as one already negatived by the committee, or which is inconsistent with one that has been agreed to by the committee, unless a recommittal of the bill has intervened.
- (3) If a clause is amended, a further question shall be put, that the clause stand as amended.
- (4) If an amendment has been made in the bill, not coming within the original title, the title shall be amended, and that amendment shall be specially reported to the Senate.

119 Uncompleted proceedings in committee

No notice may be taken of any proceedings of a committee of the whole, or of a standing or select committee, on a bill, until those proceedings have been reported, but the Senate may at any time order a bill to be printed as amended in committee.

120 Report from committee

- (1) When the consideration of a bill in committee of the whole has been concluded the question shall be put that this bill (or this bill as amended) be reported, and if that question is agreed to the chair shall leave the chair and report the bill forthwith.
- (2) On the motion that the bill be reported the reconsideration of any clauses may be moved as an amendment.
- (3) If a bill is reported with amendments a future day shall be appointed for taking the report into consideration and moving its adoption, and the bill, as reported, shall be printed, but if no amendments have been made the report may be at once adopted.

121 Recommittal on report

On the motion for the adoption of the report the bill may, on motion, be recommitted, in whole or in part.

122 Third reading

- (1) When the report of the committee of the whole is adopted, a future day shall be fixed for the third reading.
- (2) When the order of the day for the third reading of a bill is called on, the question shall be proposed—That this bill be now read a third time.

- (3) An amendment may be moved to that question by leaving out “now”, and adding “this day 6 months”, which, if carried, shall finally dispose of the bill. No other amendment may be moved to the question for the third reading.
- (4) After the third reading no further question shall be put, and the bill shall be taken to have been passed by the Senate.

123 Recommittal on third reading

When the order of the day for the third reading is called on and before the motion for the third reading is carried, the bill may, on motion, be recommitted, in whole or in part.

124 Corrections

Amendments of a formal nature may be made, and clerical or typographical errors may be corrected, in any part of a bill by the Chair of Committees.

125 Transmission to House of Representatives

- (1) When a bill originated in the Senate has been passed, the Clerk shall certify at the top of the first page: This bill originated in the Senate, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.
- (2) After a bill has been so certified by the Clerk, it shall be sent with a message requesting the concurrence of the House of Representatives.

126 House of Representatives amendments on bills originated in the Senate

- (1) When a bill has been returned from the House of Representatives with amendments, the message and the amendments shall be printed and a time fixed for taking them into consideration in a committee of the whole.
- (2) Amendments made by the House of Representatives may be agreed to with or without amendment, or disagreed to, or the consideration of them postponed, or the bill ordered to be laid aside.
- (3) An amendment shall not be proposed to an amendment of the House of Representatives that is not relevant to it, and an amendment may not be moved to the bill unless it is relevant to, or consequent upon, the acceptance, amendment or rejection of a House of Representatives amendment.
- (4) When amendments made by the House of Representatives have been agreed to by the Senate without amendments, a message shall be sent informing the House of Representatives accordingly.
- (5) If House of Representatives amendments have been agreed to with amendments, the bill shall be returned with a schedule of those amendments, in a message requesting the concurrence of the House of Representatives.

- (6) If House of Representatives amendments have been disagreed to, the bill may be laid aside, or it may be again sent to the House of Representatives, with a message requesting its reconsideration.
- (7) When a bill is returned to the House of Representatives with amendments made by the House of Representatives disagreed to, the message containing the bill shall also contain reasons for the Senate not agreeing to the amendments proposed by the House of Representatives.
- (8) The reasons shall be drawn up by a committee appointed for that purpose when the Senate adopts the report of the committee of the whole disagreeing to the amendments, or may be adopted by motion at that time.
- (9) When amendments have been made by the Senate on the amendments of the House of Representatives, a schedule of those amendments shall be prepared, shall be certified by the Clerk, and shall accompany the bill.

127 Bill again returned from the House of Representatives

- (1) If the House of Representatives returns a bill with a message informing the Senate that it:
 - (a) insists on its original amendments to which the Senate has disagreed;
 - (b) disagrees to amendments made by the Senate on the original amendments of the House of Representatives; or
 - (c) agrees to amendments made by the Senate on the original amendments of the House of Representatives, with further amendments,the Senate may:
 - (d) agree, with or without amendment, to the amendments to which it had previously disagreed, and make, if necessary, consequent amendments to the bill;
 - (e) insist on its disagreement to such amendments;
 - (f) withdraw its amendments and agree to the original amendments of the House of Representatives;
 - (g) make further amendments to the bill consequent upon the rejection of its amendments;
 - (h) propose new amendments as alternative to the amendments to which the House of Representatives has disagreed;
 - (i) insist on its amendments to which the House of Representatives has disagreed;
 - (j) agree, with or without amendment, to such further amendments of the House of Representatives, making consequent amendments to the bill, if necessary; or

- (k) disagree to the further amendments and insist on its own amendments which the House of Representatives has amended, and if agreement is not reached or if the bill is again returned by the House of Representatives with any of the requirements of the Senate still disagreed to, the Senate shall order the bill to be laid aside, or request a conference.

- (2) When the requirements of the House of Representatives in the bill have been finally agreed to, a message shall be sent informing the House of Representatives accordingly.
- (3) The Clerk shall, at every stage, certify on the first page of the bill the action taken by the Senate.

128 Bills received from the House of Representatives

Bills coming to the Senate for the first time from the House of Representatives shall be proceeded with in the same manner as bills presented pursuant to orders of the Senate.

129 Requests

- (1) If requests for amendments in a bill have been made (whether in addition to amendments or not), the requests shall, upon the conclusion of the committee's proceedings, be reported to the Senate, and upon the adoption of the report a message shall be sent to the House of Representatives requesting the House to make amendments in the bill in accordance with the requests, and returning the bill.
- (2) On the disposal of such requested amendments in accordance with the standing orders, the bill shall be read a third time, and, if the Senate has made amendments in the bill, the procedure with respect to amendments shall be followed.

130 Amendments changed to requests

- (1) If a bill received from the House of Representatives, in which the Senate has made amendments, is returned by the House of Representatives with a suggestion that any of the amendments should be made the subject of a request by the Senate in accordance with section 53 of the Constitution, the Senate may forthwith, or on a future day, take the message into consideration in committee; and if any requests for amendments are made, the bill shall be returned to the House of Representatives with a message requesting that House to make the requested amendments.
- (2) In dealing with any such requests the same procedure shall be followed as for requests made in the first instance.
- (3) After the requests have been disposed of, if the amendments of the Senate have not been agreed to, the procedure with respect to amendments shall be followed.

131 Return of House of Representatives bill

- (1) When a bill has been passed by the Senate with or without amendment, it shall be returned to the House of Representatives by message, with the Clerk's certificate that the bill has been agreed to by the Senate without amendment, or with the amendments indicated by the annexed schedule, as the case may require, and the concurrence of the House of Representatives shall be requested to such amendments.
- (2) When any amendments have been made by the Senate to a bill which has been first passed by the House of Representatives, a schedule of the amendments shall be prepared containing reference to the page and line of the bill where the words are to be inserted or omitted, and describing the amendments proposed, and this schedule shall be certified by the Clerk and shall accompany the bill.

132 Disagreement with Senate amendments

- (1) If the House of Representatives returns a bill with amendments made by the Senate disagreed to, or further amendments made, the message returning the bill shall be printed and a time fixed for taking it into consideration in a committee of the whole.
- (2) Where the House of Representatives:
 - (a) disagrees to amendments made by the Senate; or
 - (b) agrees to amendments made by the Senate with amendments, the Senate may:
 - (c) insist, or not insist, on its amendments;
 - (d) make further amendments to the bill consequent upon the rejection of its amendments;
 - (e) propose new amendments as an alternative to the amendments to which the House of Representatives has disagreed;
 - (f) agree to the House of Representatives amendments on its own amendments, with or without amendment, making consequent amendments to the bill if necessary;
 - (g) disagree to those amendments and insist on its own amendments which the House of Representatives has amended; or
 - (h) order the bill to be laid aside, and, unless the bill is laid aside, a message shall be sent to the House of Representatives advising of the Senate's action.

133 House of Representatives amendments to Senate amendments

- (1) When a bill is returned to the House of Representatives with amendments made by the House of Representatives on the Senate's amendments disagreed to, the message returning the bill shall also contain reasons for the Senate not agreeing to the amendments proposed by the House of Representatives.
- (2) The reasons shall be drawn up by a committee appointed for that purpose when the Senate adopts the report of the committee of the whole disagreeing to the amendments, or may be adopted by motion at that time.
- (3) When further amendments are made by the Senate on the House of Representatives amendments on the Senate's original amendments to a bill which has been first passed by the House of Representatives, a schedule of the further amendments shall be prepared, shall be certified by the Clerk and shall accompany the bill.
- (4) The Clerk shall, at every stage, certify on the first page of the bill the action taken by the Senate.

134 Amendments after disagreement

Where the House of Representatives has disagreed with amendments made by the Senate in a bill first passed by the House, an amendment may not be proposed in any words of the bill which, having received the concurrence of the House of Representatives, have not been the subject of, or immediately affected by, some previous amendment, unless the proposed amendment is consequent on an amendment already agreed to or made by the Senate.

135 Bills amending the Constitution

If the third reading of a bill proposing an alteration of the Constitution is not carried by an absolute majority of the Senate the bill shall be forthwith laid aside without any question being put, and shall not be revived during the same session.

136 Lapsed bills

- (1) A bill which lapses by reason of a prorogation before it has reached its final stage may be proceeded with in the next session at the stage it had reached in the preceding session, if a periodical election for the Senate or general election for either House has not taken place between the 2 sessions, under the following conditions:
 - (a) If the bill is in the possession of the House in which it originated, not having been sent to the other House, or, if sent, then returned by message, it may be proceeded with by resolution of the House in which it is, restoring it to the Notice Paper.
 - (b) If the bill is in the possession of the House in which it did not originate it may be proceeded with by resolution of the House in which it is, restoring it to the Notice Paper, but such resolution shall not be passed unless a message has been received from the House in which it originated, requesting that its consideration be resumed.

- (2) A bill so restored to the Notice Paper may be proceeded with in both Houses as if its passage had not been interrupted by a prorogation, and, if finally passed, shall be presented to the Governor-General for assent.
- (3) If a motion for restoration of a bill to the Notice Paper is not agreed to, the bill may be introduced and proceeded with in the ordinary manner.

137 Presentation for assent

A bill originated in the Senate and finally passed by both Houses shall be printed and presented by the President to the Governor-General for assent, having been certified by the Clerk accordingly.

138 Amendments proposed by the Governor-General

- (1) When the Governor-General returns a bill recommending amendments, the amendments shall be considered and dealt with in the same manner as amendments proposed by the House of Representatives.
- (2) When the Senate has agreed to an amendment proposed by the Governor-General, with or without amendment, the amendment, together with any alterations necessary to be made in the bill in consequence of the amendment, shall be forwarded to the House of Representatives for its concurrence; and any amendment made by the House of Representatives shall be dealt with in the same manner as amendments made by the House of Representatives on bills originated in the Senate.
- (3) Amendments recommended by the Governor-General in bills originated in the House of Representatives, which have been agreed to by the House of Representatives and forwarded for the concurrence of the Senate, shall be proceeded with in the same manner as amendments made by the House of Representatives on the Senate's amendments to bills first received from the House of Representatives.
- (4) When amendments recommended by the Governor-General in a bill originated in the Senate have been agreed to by both Houses with or without amendment, the bill shall be printed and presented by the President to the Governor-General, having been certified accordingly.
- (5) If any such amendment is disagreed to by the Senate, or if no agreement between the Houses is reached, the President shall again present to the Governor-General for assent the bill in the form as first presented for that purpose.

139 Assent to bill

- (1) A copy of an Act resulting from a bill which originated in the Senate, bearing the Governor-General's signature and showing the date of assent, shall be retained by the Clerk.
- (2) There shall be laid on the table, on or before 31 August each year, details of all provisions of Acts which come into effect on proclamation and which have not been proclaimed, together with a statement of reasons for their non-proclamation and a timetable for their operation.

(amended 13 February 1997, 22 November 1999)

140 Requests on bills not amendable by the Senate

- (1) Requests to the House of Representatives may be made at all or any of the following stages of a bill which the Senate may not amend:
 - (a) On the motion for the first reading of the bill.
 - (b) In committee after the second reading has been agreed to.
 - (c) On consideration of any message from the House of Representatives referring to the bill.
 - (d) On the third reading of the bill.
- (2) A committee may recommend that the Senate make, press, or modify, and may generally deal with, requests on the bill.
- (3) Proceedings in committee shall be as follows:
 - (a) The chair shall call on each clause or item, and put the question—That the clause or item be now passed without requests.
 - (b) If motions for requests are moved and passed, the chair shall put a further question—That the clause or item be now passed, subject to the requests being complied with.
 - (c) If either of those questions is negatived, it shall again be proposed by the chair, and consideration of the clause or item may continue until either question is agreed to.
 - (d) At the request of a senator a clause or item shall be divided.
- (4) When a request to the House of Representatives is made a message shall be sent to the House of Representatives returning the bill and requesting the House to make amendments in the bill in accordance with the request.

141 Requests not complied with

- (1) Messages from the House of Representatives referring to requests by the Senate which do not completely comply with the requests as originally made or as modified shall be considered in committee.
- (2) If a bill is returned to the Senate by the House of Representatives with a request not agreed to, or agreed to with modifications, any of the following motions may be moved:
 - (a) That the request be pressed.
 - (b) That the request be not pressed.
 - (c) That the modifications be agreed to.
 - (d) That the modifications be not agreed to.
 - (e) That another modification of the original request be made.

- (f) That the request be not pressed, or agreed to as modified, subject to a request relating to another clause or item, which the committee orders to be reconsidered, being complied with.
- (3) If a message is returned from the House of Representatives completely complying with requests of the Senate as originally made or as modified, the bill, as altered, may be proceeded with in the usual way.

142 Limitation of debate on bills

- (1) When a motion for leave to introduce a bill is called on, or when a message is received from the House of Representatives transmitting a bill for concurrence, or at any other stage of a bill, a minister may declare that the bill is an urgent bill, and move that the bill be considered an urgent bill, and such motion shall be put forthwith without debate or amendment.
- (2) If that motion is agreed to, a minister may forthwith, or at any time during any sitting of the Senate or committee, but not so as to interrupt a senator who is speaking, move a further motion or motions specifying the time which (exclusive of any adjournment or suspension of sitting, and notwithstanding anything contained in any other standing or other order) shall be allotted to all or any stages of the bill, and an order with regard to the time allotted to the committee stage of the bill may, out of the time allotted, apportion time to particular clauses, or to particular parts of the bill.
- (3) On such further motion or motions with regard to the allotment of time, debate shall not exceed 60 minutes, and in speaking, a senator shall not exceed 10 minutes, and if the debate is not sooner concluded, forthwith upon the expiration of that time the President or the chair shall put any questions on any amendment or motion already proposed from the chair.
- (4) For the purpose of bringing to a conclusion any proceedings which are to be brought to a conclusion on the expiration of the time allotted under any motion passed under the provisions of this standing order, the President or the chair shall at the time appointed put forthwith the question on any amendment or motion already proposed from the chair, and, in the case of the consideration of any bill in committee, shall then put any clauses and any amendments and new clauses and schedules, copies of which have been circulated among senators 2 hours at least before the expiration of the allotted time, and any other question requisite to dispose of the business before the Senate or committee, and no other amendments, new clauses or schedules shall be proposed.
- (5) The motion that the question be now put shall not be moved in any proceedings in respect of which time has been allotted under this standing order.
- (6) Where a time has been specified for the commencement of proceedings under this standing order, when the time so specified has been reached the business then before the Senate or committee shall be postponed forthwith and the consideration of the urgent bill proceeded with, and all steps necessary to enable this to be done shall be taken accordingly.

CHAPTER 21

COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE

143 Appointment of committee

- (1) A committee of the whole shall be appointed by a resolution that the Senate resolve itself into a committee of the whole, immediately or at a future time.
- (2) When an order of the day is read for the Senate to resolve itself into a committee of the whole the President shall leave the chair without putting any question, and the Senate then resolve itself into committee, unless on notice an instruction to the committee is proposed.

144 Proceedings in committee

- (1) A committee shall consider only the matters referred to it by the Senate.
- (2) A question in committee shall be decided in the same manner as in the Senate.
- (3) A motion contradictory of a previous decision of a committee shall not be entertained in the same committee.
- (4) A motion for the previous question may not be made in committee.
- (5) In committee senators may speak more than once to the same question, and, when a question has been proposed from the chair, shall confine themselves to that question.
- (6) Motions that the question be now put and that the chair report progress and ask leave to sit again shall be moved without discussion and immediately put and determined, but neither of those motions shall be repeated within 15 minutes after either of them has been moved.
- (7) Except as otherwise provided by the standing orders, the same rules of the conduct of senators and of debate, procedure, and the conduct of business shall be observed in committee as in the Senate, the Chair of Committees being invested with the same authority as the President for the preservation of order, but disorder in a committee may be censured only by the Senate, on receiving a report.

145 Objection to chair's ruling

If objection is taken to a decision of the Chair of Committees, such objection must be stated at once in writing. The chair shall then leave the chair, and the Senate resume. The matter having been laid before the President, and senators having addressed themselves to it, shall be disposed of, and the proceedings in committee shall be resumed where they were interrupted.

146 President to resume chair

- (1) If sudden disorder arises in committee, the President shall resume the chair.
- (2) The President shall resume the chair at the time for doing anything which the Senate has ordered to be done at a stated time.

147 Quorum

- (1) The quorum in committee of the whole shall be the same as for the Senate.
- (2) If notice is taken of the absence of a quorum in committee, the chair shall count the committee, and if after the bells have been rung for 4 minutes a quorum is not formed, or if it appears on a division (by which division no decision shall be taken to have been arrived at) that a quorum is not present, the chair shall leave the chair and report to the Senate.
- (3) If the proceedings of a committee are interrupted by lack of a quorum and consequent adjournment of the Senate, the resumption of the committee shall be an order of the day for the next day of sitting, and when the order is called on the proceedings shall be resumed at the point where they were interrupted.

148 Report of committee

- (1) When all matters referred to a committee have been considered, the chair shall be directed to report to the Senate, and when the consideration of those matters has not been concluded, the chair may be directed to report progress and ask leave to sit again.
- (2) A motion may be made at any time during the proceedings of a committee that the chair report progress and ask leave to sit again.
- (3) Resolutions reported from a committee may be agreed to or disagreed to by the Senate, or agreed to with amendments, recommitted to the committee, or the further consideration of them postponed.

CHAPTER 22

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMMITTEES

149 Effect of instruction

An instruction empowers a committee to consider matters not otherwise referred to it, or extends or restricts its order of reference.

150 Instructions on bills

- (1) An instruction may be given to a committee to divide a bill into 2 or more bills, or to consolidate several bills into one.
- (2) An instruction may be given to a committee on a bill to amend an existing Act to consider amendments which are not relevant to the subject matter of the bill but are relevant to the subject matter of the Act it is proposed to amend.

151 Notice required

An instruction requires notice, and in respect of a committee of the whole may be moved only before going into committee.

CHAPTER 23

COMMUNICATION BETWEEN THE TWO HOUSES

152 Methods of communication

Communications with the House of Representatives may be by message, by conference, or by committees conferring with each other.

153 Messages from the Senate

A message from the Senate to the House of Representatives shall be in writing, signed by the President or Deputy President, and delivered by a clerk at the table or the Usher of the Black Rod.

154 Communicating a resolution

A motion may be moved at any time, without notice, that any resolution of the Senate be communicated by message to the House of Representatives.

155 Messages from the House of Representatives

A message from the House of Representatives shall be received, if the Senate is sitting, by a clerk at the table, and, if the Senate is not sitting, by the Clerk of the Senate, and shall be reported by the President as early as convenient, and a future time fixed for its consideration, or it may, by leave, be dealt with at once.

CHAPTER 24

CONFERENCES

156 Request for conference

- (1) Conferences sought by the Senate with the House of Representatives shall be requested by message.
- (2) In requesting a conference, the message from the Senate shall state, in general terms, the object for which the conference is sought and the number of managers proposed to serve, which shall be not less than 5.
- (3) A conference shall not be requested by the Senate on the subject of a bill or motion of which the House of Representatives is at the time of the request in possession.

157 Appointment of managers

- (1) A motion for requesting a conference shall contain the names of the senators proposed by the mover to be the managers for the Senate.
- (2) If, on such a motion, any senator so requires, the managers for the Senate shall be selected by ballot.
- (3) Managers to represent the Senate in a conference requested by the House of Representatives shall consist of the same number of members as those of the House of Representatives.

158 Sitting suspended

During a conference the sitting of the Senate shall be suspended.

159 Time and place of conference

- (1) In respect of any conference requested by the House of Representatives the time and place for holding the conference shall be appointed by the Senate; and when the Senate requests a conference, it shall agree to its being held at the time and place appointed by the House of Representatives, and such agreement shall be communicated by message.
- (2) At conferences requested by the House of Representatives the managers for the Senate shall assemble at the time and place appointed, and receive the managers of the House of Representatives.

160 Proceedings at conference

- (1) At all conferences the reasons or resolutions of the Senate communicated by the managers shall be in writing, and the managers shall not receive any such communication from the managers for the House of Representatives unless it is in writing.

- (2) At conferences the managers for the Senate shall deliver the reasons or resolutions of the Senate to the managers for the House of Representatives, or receive from the managers for the House of Representatives the reasons or resolutions communicated by the latter, after which the managers for the Senate shall be at liberty to confer freely with the managers for the House of Representatives.

161 Report of conference

The managers for the Senate shall, when the conference has concluded, report the proceedings to the Senate.

162 One conference only

CHAPTER 25

BALLOTS

163 Conduct of ballot

- (1) Before the Senate proceeds to a ballot, the bells shall be rung as in a division.
- (2) Each senator present shall give to the Clerk a list of the names of the senators for whom the senator votes, and if any list contains a larger or lesser number of names than are to be chosen it shall be void and rejected.
- (3) When all the lists are collected, the Clerk, with the mover acting as scrutineer, shall ascertain and report to the President the names of the senators having the greatest number of votes, which senators shall be declared to be chosen.
- (4) If 2 or more senators have an equality of votes, the President shall determine by lot which senator shall be chosen.

CHAPTER 26

TABLING OF DOCUMENTS

164 Order for the production of documents

- (1) Documents may be ordered to be laid on the table, and the Clerk shall communicate to the Leader of the Government in the Senate all orders for documents made by the Senate.
- (2) When returned the documents shall be laid on the table by the Clerk.
- (3) If a minister does not comply with an order for the production of documents, directed to the minister, within 30 days after the date specified for compliance with the order, and does not, within that period, provide to the Senate an explanation of why the order has not been complied with which the Senate resolves is satisfactory:
 - (a) at the conclusion of question time on each and any day after that period, a senator may ask the relevant minister for such an explanation; and
 - (b) the senator may, at the conclusion of the explanation, move without notice—That the Senate take note of the explanation; or
 - (c) in the event that the minister does not provide an explanation, the senator may, without notice, move a motion in relation to the minister's failure to provide either an answer or an explanation.

(amended 9 November 2005)

165 Documents from the Governor-General

- (1) When the royal prerogative is concerned in any document required by the Senate an address shall be presented to the Governor-General requesting that the document be laid before the Senate.
- (2) A motion for the production of correspondence addressed to the Governor-General shall be in the form of an address.

166 Other methods of tabling documents

- (1) Other documents may be presented pursuant to statute, by the President, or by a minister.
- (2) If:
 - (a) the President certifies that a document is to be presented to the Senate; or
 - (b) a minister or the Auditor-General provides to the President, or, if the President is unable to act, to the Deputy President, or, if the Deputy President is unavailable, to any one of the Temporary Chairs of Committees, a document which is to be laid before the Senate, on the certification or the provision of the document, as the case may be:

- (c) the document shall be deemed to have been presented to the Senate;
- (d) the publication of the document is authorised by this standing order;
- (e) the President, the Deputy President, or the Temporary Chair of Committees, as the case may be, may give directions for the printing and circulation of the document; and
- (f) the President shall lay the document on the table at the next sitting of the Senate.

The publication of each document laid on the table of the Senate is authorised by this standing order.

168 Documents quoted in debate

- (1) A document relating to public affairs quoted by a minister may be ordered to be laid on the table, unless the minister states that the document is of a confidential nature or should more properly be obtained by address.
- (2) A document quoted by a senator not a minister may be ordered to be laid on the table.
- (3) An order under paragraph (1) or (2) may be made by motion without notice moved immediately on the conclusion of the speech of the senator who quoted the document.

169 Motions after tabling

- (1) On a document being laid before the Senate, it shall be in order to move:
 - (a) that a day be appointed for its consideration; or
 - (b) that it be printed.
- (2) Where a motion is moved by leave in relation to a document presented to the Senate, including a document presented to the President when the Senate is not sitting, a senator speaking to such a motion shall not speak for more than 10 minutes, and debate on the motion shall not exceed 30 minutes; where 2 or more such motions are moved in succession, debate on all motions shall not exceed 60 minutes.

(amended 13 February 1997)

170 Amendments after tabling

Amendments not altering the substance of the document may be made, and clerical or typographical errors may be corrected, by authority of the President, in a document that has been ordered to be printed. No other amendments may be made except by authority of the Senate.

CHAPTER 27

ADDRESSES TO THE QUEEN OR THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

171 Making of address

An address to the Queen or the Governor-General shall be proposed on motion after notice in the usual manner.

172 Presentation of address

- (1) Addresses to the Queen shall be transmitted to the Governor-General by the President, requesting that they be forwarded for presentation.
- (2) Addresses to the Governor-General shall be presented by the President, unless the Senate otherwise orders.
- (3) When an address is ordered to be presented by the Senate, the President, accompanied by senators, shall proceed to the place the Governor-General appoints, and, being admitted to the Governor-General's presence, the President shall read the address to the Governor-General, the senator who moved the address being with the President.
- (4) The Governor-General's answer to an address presented by the Senate shall be reported by the President.

CHAPTER 28

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL

173 Presentation of message

- (1) A message from the Governor-General shall be reported to the Senate by the President as soon as practicable after its receipt.
- (2) A message from the Governor-General may be presented to the Senate by a minister at any time, but not during a debate, or so as to interrupt a senator speaking.
- (3) The message may be at once taken into consideration, or ordered to be printed, or a future day may be fixed for taking it into consideration.

CHAPTER 29

VISITORS

174 Distinguished visitors

The President may, by leave of the Senate, admit distinguished visitors to a seat on the floor of the Senate.

175 Conduct of visitors

- (1) Visitors may attend, in the galleries provided, a sitting of the Senate.
- (2) A person other than a senator, a clerk at the table or an officer attending on the Senate may not:
 - (a) attend a meeting of the Senate in private session; or
 - (b) enter any part of the Senate chamber reserved for senators while the Senate is sitting.
- (3) Paragraph (2) does not apply in respect of a senator breastfeeding an infant.
- (4) The Usher of the Black Rod shall, subject to any direction by the Senate or the President, take into custody any person who enters any part of the chamber reserved for senators while the Senate is sitting, or causes a disturbance in or near the chamber, and a person so taken into custody shall be discharged out of custody in accordance with an order of the Senate.

(amended 13 May 2003)

CHAPTER 30

WITNESSES

176 Summoning of witnesses

- (1) Witnesses, other than senators, may be ordered to attend before the Senate by summons signed by the Clerk, or before a committee by summons signed by the secretary of the committee.
- (2) If a witness fails or refuses to attend or give evidence, the matter shall be reported to the Senate.

177 Senators as witnesses

- (1) When the attendance of a senator is ordered by the Senate, the senator shall be summoned by the President to attend in the senator's place.
- (2) If a committee requires the attendance of a senator as a witness, the chair shall, in writing, request the senator to attend, and if the senator declines to attend or to give evidence, the committee shall report the matter to the Senate.
- (3) The Senate may order a senator to attend a Senate committee and to give evidence to the committee.

178 Members or officers of the House of Representatives

When the attendance of a member or officer of the House of Representatives is required by the Senate or a committee a message shall be sent to the House of Representatives requesting that the House of Representatives give leave to the member or officer to attend.

179 Requests from the House of Representatives

If the House of Representatives requests by message the attendance of a senator or an officer of the Senate before the House of Representatives or a committee, the Senate may authorise the senator or officer to attend.

180 Witnesses in prison

When a witness is in prison, the person in charge of the prison may be ordered to bring the witness, in safe custody, to be examined, and the President may be ordered to issue a warrant accordingly.

181 Protection of witnesses

182 Witnesses before the Senate

The examination of a witness before the Senate shall be conducted in accordance with procedures adopted by the Senate for the purpose.

183 Evidence given elsewhere by senators or officers

A senator or officer of the Senate, or a person involved in recording the proceedings of the Senate or a committee, may not give evidence elsewhere in respect of proceedings of the Senate or the committee, without the permission of the Senate, or, if the President is authorised to give that permission, of the President.

CHAPTER 31

CONDUCT OF SENATORS AND RULES OF DEBATE

184 Order maintained by President

- (1) Order shall be maintained in the Senate by the President.
- (2) Whenever the President rises during a debate, a senator then speaking or offering to speak shall sit down, and the Senate shall be silent, so that the President may be heard without interruption.
- (3) When the President is putting a question a senator shall not walk out of or across the chamber.

185 Conduct of senators

- (1) A senator shall acknowledge the chair on entering or leaving the chamber.
- (2) A senator shall not pass between the chair and a senator who is speaking, nor between the chair and the table.
- (3) A senator on entering the chamber shall take the senator's place, and shall not stand in any of the passages.

186 The call to speak

- (1) A senator desiring to speak shall rise and address the President.
- (2) Subject to the practices of the Senate relating to the call to speak, when 2 or more senators rise together to speak, the President shall call upon the senator who, in the President's opinion, first rose in the senator's place.

188 Right to speak

- (1) Unless otherwise provided, a senator may speak once:
 - (a) on a question before the Senate;
 - (b) on an amendment; and
 - (c) in reply, where a reply is permitted.
- (2) In committee, senators may speak more than once.

189 Time limits on speeches

- (1) Subject to other time limits specified, a senator shall not speak for more than 20 minutes in any debate in the Senate. A senator may move that that time limit be extended by not more than 10 minutes, and such a motion shall forthwith be put without debate.

- (2) Where a right of reply is allowed in a debate a senator speaking in reply shall speak for not more than 20 minutes.
- (3) In committee a senator shall not speak for more than 15 minutes at a time on any question, but where the speech of a senator is interrupted by this provision, and no other senator rises to speak, the senator so interrupted may continue to speak for a further 15 minutes but no longer continuously on a question.

(amended 13 February 1997)

190 Personal explanations

By leave of the Senate, a senator may explain matters of a personal nature, although there is no question before the Senate, but such matters may not be debated.

191 Explanation of speeches

A senator who has spoken to a question may again be heard, to explain some material part of the senator's speech which has been misquoted or misunderstood, but shall not introduce any new matter, or interrupt any senator speaking, and no debatable matter shall be brought forward or debate arise on such an explanation.

192 Reply

- (1) A reply may be made by a senator who has made a substantive motion to the Senate on which debate is allowed, but not by a senator who has moved an amendment or the previous question.
- (2) The reply of the mover of the original question shall close the debate.

193 Rules of debate

- (1) A senator shall not reflect on any vote of the Senate, except for the purpose of moving that the vote be rescinded.
- (2) A senator shall not refer to the Queen, the Governor-General or the Governor of a state disrespectfully in debate, or for the purpose of influencing the Senate in its deliberations.
- (3) A senator shall not use offensive words against either House of Parliament or of a House of a state or territory parliament, or any member of such House, or against a judicial officer, and all imputations of improper motives and all personal reflections on those Houses, members or officers shall be considered highly disorderly.

194 Relevance and anticipation

- (1) A senator shall not digress from the subject matter of any question under discussion, or anticipate the discussion of any subject which appears on the Notice Paper.
- (2) This standing order shall not prevent discussion on the address-in-reply of any matter, or of any matter on the Notice Paper and not discussed during the preceding 4 weeks.

195 Question may be read

A senator may require the question to be read by the Clerk at any time during a debate, but not so as to interrupt a senator speaking.

196 Tedious repetition

The President or the Chair of Committees may call the attention of the Senate or the committee, as the case may be, to continued irrelevance or tedious repetition, and may direct a senator to discontinue a speech, but that senator may require that the question whether the senator be further heard be put, and then that question shall be put without debate.

197 Interruption of speaker: points of order or privilege

- (1) A senator shall not interrupt another senator speaking, except:
 - (a) to call attention to a point of order or privilege; or
 - (b) to call attention to the lack of a quorum.
- (2) A senator may draw attention at any time to a point of order or a matter of privilege arising in the proceedings then before the Senate.
- (3) A question of order or a matter of privilege so raised suspends the consideration and decision of every other question until determined.
- (4) On a question of order being raised the senator called to order shall sit down.
- (5) The President may hear argument on the question, and may determine it forthwith, or at a later time, at the President's discretion.
- (6) Time taken in raising and determining points of order during a debate shall not be regarded as part of the amount of time allowed for a senator to speak in a debate or ask a question or for a debate.

(amended 13 February 1997)

198 Objection to ruling

- (1) If an objection is taken to a ruling or decision of the President, such objection must be taken at once and in writing, and a motion moved that the Senate dissent from the President's ruling.
- (2) Debate on that motion shall be adjourned to the next sitting day, unless the Senate decides on motion, without debate, that the question requires immediate determination.

199 Closure of debate

- (1) The motion that the question be now put is not open to debate or amendment and shall be forthwith put by the President and determined.
- (2) If the motion that the question be now put is carried, the Senate shall vote on the question immediately before it without further debate or amendment.

- (3) A motion that the question be now put may not be moved by a senator, other than a minister, who has spoken in the debate or who has previously moved that motion.

200 Putting of question ends debate

A senator may not speak to any question after it has been put by the President and the vote commenced.

201 Adjournment of debate

- (1) A debate may be adjourned on motion or by the granting of leave for a senator to continue the senator's speech, either to a later hour of the same day or to any other day.
- (2) A motion to adjourn a debate is not open to debate or amendment.
- (3) When a debate is adjourned, by motion or by the granting of leave for a senator to continue the senator's speech, the resumption of the debate shall be made an order of the day for the next day of sitting without any question being put, unless a motion is agreed to fixing another time for the resumption of the debate.
- (4) The senator on whose motion a debate is adjourned shall be entitled to be first heard on the resumption of the debate.
- (5) If a motion for the adjournment of the debate on a question is negatived, the senator moving the motion may address the Senate at any time during the debate.
- (6) A motion for the adjournment of a debate may not be moved by a senator, other than a minister, who has spoken in the debate or who has previously moved the adjournment.

202 Interruption by adjournment of Senate

If a debate is interrupted by an adjournment of the Senate, the debate shall be an order of the day for the next day of sitting.

203 Infringement of order

- (1) If a senator:
 - (a) persistently and wilfully obstructs the business of the Senate;
 - (b) is guilty of disorderly conduct;
 - (c) uses objectionable words, and refuses to withdraw such words;
 - (d) persistently and wilfully refuses to conform to the standing orders; or
 - (e) persistently and wilfully disregards the authority of the chair,the President may report to the Senate that the senator has committed an offence.

- (2) If an offence has been committed by a senator in a committee of the whole, the chair may suspend the proceedings of the committee and report the offence to the President.
- (3) A senator who has been reported as having committed an offence shall attend in the senator's place and be called upon to make an explanation or apology, and then a motion may be moved that the senator be suspended from the sitting of the Senate. No amendment, adjournment or debate shall be allowed on such a motion, which shall be immediately put by the President.

204 Suspension of senator

- (1) The suspension of a senator on the first occasion shall be for the remainder of that day's sitting, on the second occasion for 7 sitting days, and on the third or any subsequent occasion for 14 sitting days, where such suspensions occur within the same calendar year.
- (2) A senator who has been suspended shall not enter the chamber during the period of the suspension. If a senator enters the chamber during the senator's suspension, the President shall order the Usher of the Black Rod to remove the senator from the chamber.

205 Quarrels between senators

The Senate may intervene to prevent the prosecution of a quarrel between senators arising out of debates or proceedings of the Senate or of a committee.

206 Disobedience of orders

If a senator wilfully disobeys an order of the Senate, that senator may be ordered to attend the Senate and may be taken into custody.

CHAPTER 32

DISPUTED RETURNS

207 Petitions disputing elections

- (1) Any question concerning the election, choice or appointment of a senator which cannot, under the provisions of the Commonwealth Electoral Act, be brought before the Court of Disputed Returns, may be brought before the Senate by petition.
- (2) A petition shall be lodged with the Clerk within 40 days after the certificate of the Governor of the state for which the senator has been elected, chosen or appointed has been laid on the table.
- (3) The sum of $100 shall be paid to the Clerk at the time the petition is lodged as surety for the payment of costs by the petitioners in case the Senate decides that the petitioners shall pay costs to the respondent.
- (4) If these conditions have been complied with, the Clerk shall so certify on the petition, and the President shall lay the petition on the table.

CHAPTER 33

EFFECT AND SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS

208 Powers, privileges and immunities not affected

Except so far as is expressly provided, these standing orders do not restrict the mode in which the Senate may exercise and uphold its powers, privileges, and immunities.

209 Motion for suspension

- (1) In cases of urgent necessity, standing or other orders of the Senate may be suspended on motion without notice, if the motion is carried by an absolute majority of the whole number of senators.
- (2) When notice has been given of a motion for the suspension of a standing or other order, the motion may be carried by a majority of senators voting.
- (3) A motion for the suspension of standing or other orders moved during the consideration of a matter must be relevant to that matter.
- (4) On a motion for the suspension of a standing or other order a senator shall not speak for more than 5 minutes, and if the debate is not concluded at the expiration of 30 minutes after the moving of the motion the question on the motion shall then be put.

(amended 13 February 1997)

210 Effect of suspension

The suspension of a standing or other order shall be limited in its operation to the particular purpose for which the suspension has been sought.
