

Subject: Submission to Extreme Weather Inquiry

Judging from the fires in Australia, floods in Indonesia and drought in the USA man-made climate change is upon us. If we don't want 4 degree + rise in average global temperature you had better get on with some green-house gas mitigating legislation in a hurry or we will miss the boat.

Michael Watkins