

---

Hi,

I am deeply concerned with the horrific practice of sex selection abortion. Sex selection abortion leads to far more girls than boys being aborted which upsets the gender balance in our society.

One only has to look to places like China for example to see the deep problems this causes. The government needs to act now, to stop funding this practice before it's too late to reverse the damage.