

I do not support the proposed amendment, which would allow for a potentially dangerous shift in power, enabling a relatively small group of individuals to introduce certain legislation that can have a ripple effect throughout the rest of the nation.