

11.3.2011

To whom it may concern,

I strongly oppose any amendments to the power of the Commonwealth over the states. It is a dangerous power shifting exercise that would allow a very small group of politicians introduce legislation that will have domino effect through the nation. It's time to stop manipulative ways of a minority to get what only "they" want instead of focusing on the country as a whole. Obviously they are only concerned for themselves.

Kind Regards

Suzanne Zelenak