

---

Hi. I would just like to vote that I agree with removing the funding for medicare for sex-selection abortions.

This is morally wrong and we are treating our children as commodities for our own pleasure and self-centredness.

If this practice continues it will allow the world gender balance to be overbalanced to favour one gender which can have future consequences.

Thank you.

Regards,
Veronica Schenck