

---

To whom it may concern

I cannot believe my ears and eyes, finding out today that there is a chance that Medicare will fund people being able to terminate their pregnancy based on the sex of their unborn foetus/baby. I am utterly appalled that this can even be considered for one moment.

I urge those who have the powers to make this decision, to say a definite NO to this and let's hope and pray that this never ever even comes up for discussion EVER AGAIN

Carolyn Campbell