

I believe that Australia needs to take action to prevent the incarceration of so many indigenous youths. Programs that focus on education and employment can change the lives of so many young people – it's been proven. I know I speak for the members of my family and many I know when I say that the time for change is now.

Yours sincerely,

Anita Olsen