Timeframes for a decision on the AN-ACC model

Written

Senator: Rachel Siewert

Question:

What timeframes is the government working towards to make a decision on the AN-ACC model will be used after the shadow assessments are completed?

Answer:

The Government will consider the implementation of the AN-ACC funding model for residential aged care in the context of the findings of the Royal Commission into Aged Care Safety and Quality.

The Government will continue to consult with the sector on implementation matters before final decisions on the commencement of AN-ACC and an ongoing assessment workforce are finalised.
