

Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to express my concern with the amendments seeking to be made with the anti-discrimination bill.

As a free democratic society, I ask that you seek to protect religious freedoms as well as freedom of speech.

As you seek to widen the bill to include offense or insult, I ask that you refrain from this as it opens doors to restricting freedom of speech simply because you disagree with someone.

Regards
Renai Ahlatis