To whom it may concern

I wish to express my objection to Medicare funding for sex selection abortion. I feel that tax payers money (my money) should not be used to pay for someone's lifestyle choice, which sex selective abortion clearly is, regarding the sex of their children.

Chris Peers