

In my region there is a very high fire rating. As I am in the Rural Fire Brigade I have been aware of the lack of knowledge in the community about fires and the likelihood of problems arising from lack of preparation by landholders in a lot of cases. Those landowners who would like to do minimal clearing for fire safety are extremely hampered by council rules which prevent such clearing. This problem needs to be addressed.

AMANDA ALLEN