

To whom it may concern

I wish to register my concern and disappointment at Bob Brown's 'euthanasia-and-homosexual-marriage-by-stealth-Bill'. I don't think it represents community attitude at large (I personally disagree strongly with same sex union), and I also think the way Mr Brown is going about attempting to bring in this change does not have the honesty or integrity we expect of our politicians. It appears to be use of power for a personal agenda rather than clear public consultancy on an issue that will have far ranging and long term effects in law and society.
