

---

To whom it may concern:

I would like to register my support for the above mentioned bill. Medicare is a great idea and a wonderful asset to the Australian people but it's under stress and should only be available for necessary medical work, not to pander to people's perceived need to have a balanced family. Aborting babies because of their gender is an archaic and barbaric idea.

Yours

Elizabeth Linden