

---

We oppose gender selection & are appalled that Medicare may be asked to fund abortions for gender selections.

In some countries there is a gender imbalance because generally males are preferred over females & it may be the preference of some cultures within Australia.

Whatever the reason, personal choice or cultural preference gender choice should be illegal & not funded by the government – it is discrimination. Both sexes should have equal rights & respect & certainly both should have the opportunity of birth.