

From:
Ms Denise Deacon

The My School website does not present an accurate picture of school performance. The schools that my school was compared to on the My School website were not all similar. I feel the My School website will lead to greater emphasis on preparing for the test to the detriment of other areas of the curriculum.