

To whom can help,

I support Bills that give LGBTIQ people equal rights to "straight" heterosexual people in the eyes of laws in each state, territory and nationally within Australia.

I would like to legally marry my partner of over 5 years, but because we are of the same sex this is not recognised within Australian. Civil union and registering a relationship is not the same as marriage. Marriage is marriage.

Religion, race, class and creed are no longer barriers, so it is time to stop discriminating against people because of their sexual orientation or gender identity and make them equal citizens.

Say yes to Equal Love.

Please see attached.

Regards,
L.Sliw