Detention Centre Plans and Facilities

Question 20:

Please provide a full list of all sites investigated by the Department over the past three financial years as suitable or potentially sites or facilities for asylum seeker accommodation?

Answer:

The Department has received offers or approaches from a number of individuals and organisations identifying potential sites across Australia. Primarily, the Department works closely with the Department of Defence and the Department of Finance and Deregulation's Commonwealth Land Register to identify available Commonwealth property.

The Department investigated the following sites or facilities for accommodation, which then proceeded:

Leonora, Western Australia;

Darwin Airport Lodge in Darwin, Northern Territory;

Asti Hotel in Darwin, Northern Territory (now closed);

Scherger RAAF Base, Queensland;

Virginia Palms Hotel, Queensland (now closed);

Wickham Point, Northern Territory;

Northam Training Camp, Western Australia (also known as Yongah Hill);

Inverbrackie Defence Housing, South Australia;

Pontville, Tasmania;

Gwalia Lodge at Leonora, Western Australia;

Berrimah House at Darwin, Northern Territory;

Jandakot, Western Australia; and

Broadmeadows, adjacent to the existing Immigration Transit Accommodation facility, in Melbourne, Victoria (contingency).
