

Health Insurance Amendment (Medicare Funding for Certain Types of Abortion) Bill 2013

I am struggling to think of us as a nation that endorses the termination of a life because the gender of an unborn child is undesirable. To allow our Medicare system to pay for such procedures is endorsing Gendercide and is a wrong use of the funds needed to provide required medical care.

Suellen Milham