

I believe when you take a look at the justice system and it shows that it is costing taxpayers more money to incarcerate young people than to invest in education, health treatment and rehabilitation, something needs to be done, change needs to happen!