

---

To whom it may concern,

I agree with the bill introduced by Senator John Madigan which would see the removal of Medicare funding for sex-selection abortions. I do not believe our tax dollars should be going towards killing unborn babies simply because a parent isn't happy with the baby's gender. Medicare funding should only go towards genuine medical issues!

Thankyou for taking my submission into consideration.