House of Representatives Standing Committee on Employment, Education and Training
Inquiry into school to work transition

Issue date: 15 September 2017

Helping students gain employment to be discussed

The Standing Committee on Employment, Education and Training, as part of its inquiry into School to Work Transition will hear from a range of witnesses on Monday and Tuesday in Melbourne and Sydney respectively.

Committee Chair Mr Andrew Laming MP said the roundtable sessions should provide robust evidence for the inquiry.

“I’m looking forward to engaging with a range of universities and institutes whose focus is on the transition from school to work.” Mr Laming said.

Committee Deputy Chair Ms Terri Butler MP sees this as an important opportunity for the Committee to hear from a range of stakeholders.

“Evidence from the numerous organisations representing young people, including those with disabilities, and representatives of the indigenous community will form an important part of the material the Committee will consider during the inquiry,” Ms Butler said.

Public hearing details:

- Melbourne 18 September, 10.00 am to 3.30 pm, Victoria Parliament, 55 St Andrews Place, Room G2.
- Sydney 19 September, 10.00 am to 2.30 pm, Sydney Masonic Centre (SMC) – Conference & Function Centre, “Corinthian Room”, 66 Goulburn Street, Sydney NSW 2000.

The hearing programs are available on the committee website, along with the full terms of reference.
