
Dear Members of Parliament

I am passionate about the issue of Right to Life, and this is not a good enough reason to have an abortion if the gender of the baby does not suit the parents. If the culture of the person concerned has a preference for a particular gender, it does not mean that we should support something that is clearly against our own culture and ethics.

It is not a reason for abortion on medical grounds and therefore it does not even meet the criteria of Medicare anyway. The only reason it should be available is if the life of the mother or the baby are in danger.

It is against the value of human life as stated by United Nations, and as supported by Australia.

Please do not allow tax payers money to go towards abortions because of people's preferences in selecting gender. This is not a proper use of government funds.

Yours sincerely

Vicky Kotsiris
