As a teacher involved in Special Education (S.T.L.A.) at a high school level, I find the information on Smart Data invaluable for diagnosis on individual students as well as trends/strengths/areas of concerns /growth patterns etc.
I cannot support the "My School" website in its present form. If this website is to continue, there needs to consultation with school staffs.