

Dear Senators

I would ask you to please make sure that our freedoms, especially freedom of religion, are kept.

We have always been a people who could speak freely, with the knowledge that others have a different opinion. We need to keep these freedoms.

There can be much harm to really innocent people if free speech is stifled. Our law should be based on innocent until found guilty.

Thank you