
I support this Bill.

Abortion is grievous enough in general, but when it's done for frivolous reasons like gender selection, it is truly abhorrent. It certainly does not deserve a Medicare benefit - that is, with the implicit support of the rest of Australia. Medicare funds should not be misappropriated and should be reserved for real medical procedures.

Yours faithfully,
Andrew Calder