

I strongly support this initiative by the Greens.

Yesterday on the radio I heard a disturbing account from a wildlife carer. She was talking about the utter destruction of a colony of bats near the Shoalhaven River. Thousands died when the temperature was over 40 for 3 days in early January.

This is only one instance of the threat and terrible consequence of climate change.

I support the Greens 100%.

Kind regards,
Lesley