

Dear Sir,

I consider that Global Warming, and its associated effects, is the greatest threat to face mankind and the planet. So I consider anything we can do to reduce our carbon footprint should be done. Hence I consider it is very important to have large scale wind farms created in Australia.

Regards

Barry Murfett