SUBMISSION TO SUPPORT THE BILL
“Health Insurance Amendment (Medicare Funding for Certain Types of Abortion)
Bill 2013”

In 1995, at the Fourth World Conference on Women in the Beijing, the Australian Government through its delegation made a number of undertakings including the enactment of legislation protecting girls from all forms of violence, including...pre-natal sex selection. Eighteen years has passed. Now is the time for that legislation to go forward so that the Australian public is no longer complicit against their will, in underwriting violence against women and girls.
