

Gender- based abortion is anti-female and discriminatory. It has been used in China to the detriment of the Chinese population...they now have a great abundance of Chinese males and hardly any Chinese females because a great majority of females have been aborted in favour of the desired male children. To ask the public to pay for this type of designer fertility is immoral and I strongly oppose the use of public funds to decimate the female population of Australia.