

PARLIAMENT OF AUSTRALIA

MEDIA RELEASE

Issued: 15 March 2016

Joint Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade
Human Rights Sub-Committee

*Chair: The Hon Philip Ruddock MP
Deputy: Senator Anne McEwen*

Norway's Ambassador to give evidence

The Human Rights Sub-Committee of the Joint Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade will conduct a public hearing in Canberra today as part of its inquiry into Australia's advocacy for the abolition of the death penalty.

The Sub-Committee will hear evidence from the Norwegian Ambassador, Her Excellency Ms Unni Kløvstad. Norway's Government has taken a prominent international role as a strong advocate for abolition of the death penalty. The 6th World Congress Against the Death Penalty will be held in Oslo in June 2016.

The Sub-Committee's inquiry is reviewing how Australia currently engages internationally to promote abolition of the death penalty and further steps Australia could take to advocate for worldwide abolition.

Australia has been an active participant in the protection and promotion of human rights, including through its support of the Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, aimed at the abolition of the death penalty.

While there has been a global trend toward abolition, more than half the world's countries are yet to sign up to the protocol and in some countries the use of capital punishment appears to be increasing.
