

Dear Sirs

I am opposed to medicare funding of abortion for gender selection of children. This is leading to a greater number of males than females – who are the males going to marry in the future if there are not enough women to go around???

Yours Sincerely

Chris Stokes