
We do not live in india where they do this unGodly act to rid the family of baby girls.

We should cherish life and love life. I say No to abortion and No gender selection which is abortion. I also think this practice should not be government sponsored by medicare as we need to grow this great nation of Australia with our Children, our children are the future of this nation, our children are precious.

Sincerely yours

Steve Cruickshank