

My name is Kristina Chan

I am an independent Dance Artist and choreographer based in Sydney NSW.

I have been working professionally for 16 years performing in contemporary dance theatre works throughout Australia and touring Internationally with both acclaimed companies such as Australian Dance Theatre, Chunky Move, Australian Ballet, Force Majeure, Sydney Theatre Company and Independent works by independent choreographers. I am currently making dance work. This is my livelihood. This is my life. This is art.

I work extremely hard in my job as an artist. When i am actually being paid for what I do and also when I am NOT being paid for what i do. There is a lot of research and organisation that goes into being an independent dance artist. I love what i do and I love that it contributes to the greater community.

The arts in Australia is already bleak compared to the rest of the world. These funding cuts are going to ensure that the arts in Australia is very mediocre and a huge embarrassment to the rest of the world.
