

---

I wish to voice my support for the bill opposing Medicare funding for sex selective abortion. Whilst I am opposed to all abortion, the decision to end life based purely on the inconvenience of the baby's gender is particularly reprehensible. Using money allocated for medical services to support a lifestyle choice of the prospective parents, as no medical reason exists (rightly or wrongly) for the termination, is wrong.

Regards

Marcaus Muller.