

---

I would like to protest against taxpayers money to be used to commit murder. Please rethink. Just because it is 'inconvenient' for parents with more children to have another etc. If you pose them the question to kill one of the existing children so baby will have space would they do that?? Of course not. Contraceptives are not rebated by medicare... Perhaps they should be free... Please save the unborn children of Australia.