
I wish to strongly submit my view that the abortion of babies for gender selection in Australia is abhorrent and an unbelievable act of discrimination in our country. This must not be funded through Medicare by our citizens against our citizens. I believe it is absolutely against our values of freedom and we must care for the vulnerable in our society. Babies are not a commodity and gender selecting abortions must not be funded by our money through Medicare.

Regards

Mrs Trish Inderbitzin