

From:
Mr Scott Johnston

Two things need to happen.

1. A much better metric of disadvantage needs to be created and this will require significant resourcing to keep updated.
2. What gets published is the result of the product of the school raw scores and the metric of disadvantage.