7 FOREIGN AFFAIRS, DEFENCE AND TRADE—JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE—REPORT—MOTION TO TAKE NOTE OF DOCUMENT—REFERENCE TO MAIN COMMITTEE

Mr Bevis (Chair) presented the following document:

Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade—Joint Standing Committee—Review of the Defence annual report 2007-2008—Report, October 2009.

Ordered to be made a Parliamentary Paper.

Mr Bevis moved—That the House take note of the report.

In accordance with standing order 39, the debate was adjourned, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

Mr Bevis, by leave, moved—That the order of the day be referred to the Main Committee for debate.

Question—put and passed.

8 CORPORATIONS AMENDMENT (IMPROVING ACCOUNTABILITY ON TERMINATION PAYMENTS) BILL 2009—SENATE’S AMENDMENT

The order of the day having been read for the consideration of the amendment made by the Senate—

On the motion of Mr Bowen (Minister for Human Services), the amendment was disagreed to, after debate.

Mr Bowen presented reasons, which were circulated, and are as follows:

Reasons of the House of Representatives for disagreeing to the amendment of the Senate

The amendment passed by the Senate is not supported for the reasons outlined below.

The amendment provides that sub-sections 200F(2), (3) and (4) of the Corporations Act 2001 will cease to have effect three years after commencement of Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Corporations Amendment (Improving Accountability on Termination Payments) Bill 2009 (the Bill), unless their operation is continued or varied by a subsequent Act of Parliament.

Following the three year period, the amendment would have the effect of removing the current exception where the termination benefit is a genuine payment by way of damages for breach of contract, and would require such payments to be subject to shareholder approval irrespective of the amount of the payment. Currently, genuine payments for breach of contract are exempt from shareholder approval if they fall below the specified threshold. The Bill proposes to lower this threshold from up to seven times total remuneration to one year’s base salary. The Bill follows extensive consultation and has also been endorsed in the draft Productivity Commission report into executive remuneration in Australia. The Bill puts in place a regulatory framework that empowers shareholders to be able to reject excessive executive termination payments.

Accordingly, the House of Representatives does not accept this amendment.

On the motion of Mr Bowen, the reasons were adopted.

9 CARBON POLLUTION REDUCTION SCHEME BILL 2009 [NO. 2]

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the bill be now read a second time—And on the amendment moved thereto by Mr Turnbull, viz.—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “the House:

- (1) believes that the Government’s proposed emissions trading scheme is flawed and in its current form will cost Australian jobs and investment, and simply export rather than reduce global greenhouse gas emissions;
- (2) supports the Coalition in again calling on the Government to defer consideration of this legislation, which will impose the single largest structural change to the Australian economy, until after the Copenhagen Climate Change Summit has concluded in less than 50 days time;
- (3) notes that as the Government remains determined to keep an utterly artificial and self-imposed deadline of this Parliamentary year and as such before the world meets to address the important issue of global action, the Coalition has proposed changes to the Government’s ETS to ensure the following critical matters are addressed:
 - (a) that emissions-intensive trade-exposed industries remain on a level playing field with competitors in other advanced economies;
 - (b) that agriculture is excluded from the scheme, rather than included after 2015, and farmers have access to agricultural offset credits;
 - (c) that the impact of higher electricity prices on small businesses is moderated;
 - (d) that the coal industry is required to reduce fugitive emissions as technically feasible, but not be unfairly financially penalised;
 - (e) that transitional assistance to coal-fired electricity generators is sufficient to ensure that electricity supply security is maintained and the generators remain viable; and
 - (f) that complementary measures such as voluntary action and energy efficiency are encouraged”.

Debate resumed.
