90G An employee’s guaranteed hours for the purpose of section 90F

Employees employed to work a specified number of hours

- (1) For the purposes of section 90F, if an employee is employed to work a specified number of hours per week, the guaranteed hours for the employee, for each week, are to be worked out as follows:
- (a) start with that specified number of hours (subject to subsection (4));
 - (b) deduct all of the following:
 - (i) any hours in the week when the employee is absent from work on deductible authorised leave (as defined in subsection (6));
 - (ii) any hours in the week in relation to which the employer is prohibited by section 114 from making a payment to the employee;
 - (iii) any other hours of unauthorised absence from work by the employee in the week;
 - (c) if, during the week, the employee works, and is required or requested to work, additional hours that are, under the terms and conditions of the employee’s employment, not counted towards the specified number of hours—add on those additional hours.

Note: The actual hours worked from week to week by an employee who is employed to work a specified number of hours per week may vary, due to averaging as mentioned in section 91C or to some other kind of flexible working hours scheme that applies to the employee's employment.

- (2) If an employee is employed on a full-time basis, but the terms and conditions of the employee's employment do not determine the number of hours in a period that is to constitute employment on a full-time basis for the employee, the employee is, for the purpose of subsection (1), taken to be employed to work 38 hours per week.
- (3) If an employee is employed to work a specified number (the number of non-week specified hours) of hours per period (the non-week period), but that period is not a week (for example, it is a fortnight), then, for the purpose of subsection (1), the employee is taken to be employed to work the number of hours per week determined, subject to the regulations (if any), in accordance with the formula:

$$\text{Number of non-week specified hours} \times \frac{7}{\text{Number of days in non-week period}}$$

- (4) If:
- (a) subsection (1) applies to the employment of an employee to whom a training arrangement applies; and
 - (b) an APCS includes provisions that determine, in relation to the employee's employment, that hours attending off-the-job training (including hours attending an educational institution) are hours for which a basic periodic rate of pay is payable; and
 - (c) the hours that would otherwise be the specified number of hours referred to in subsection (1) for the employee for a week do not include all the hours (the paid training hours) in the week that the APCS so determines are hours for which a basic periodic rate of pay is payable;
- subsection (1) applies as if the specified number of hours were increased to such number of hours as includes all the paid training hours.

Employees not employed to work a specified number of hours

- (5) For the purpose of section 90F, if subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the employment of an employee, the guaranteed hours for the employee are the hours that the employee both is required or requested to work, and does work, for the employer, less any period in relation to which the employer is prohibited by section 114 from making a payment to the employee.

Definitions

- (6) In this section:
- deductible authorised leave means leave, or an absence, whether paid or unpaid, that is authorised:
- (a) by an employee's employer; or
 - (b) by or under a term or condition of an employee's employment; or
 - (c) by or under a law, or an instrument in force under a law, of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory;
- but not including any leave or absence:
- (d) that is on a public holiday and that is so authorised because the day is a public holiday; or

- (e) any leave or absence that is authorised in order for the employee to attend paid training hours (within the meaning of paragraph (4)(c)) of off-the-job training.

 - (ii) a day, or kind of day, that is excluded by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph from counting as a public holiday; or
- (b) a day that, under (or in accordance with a procedure under) a law of a State or Territory, or an award or workplace agreement, is substituted for a day referred to in paragraph (a).

[hours to which wage guarantee applies]

90GA Modified operation of section 90F to continue effect of Supported Wage System for certain employees with a disability

- (1) This section applies to the employment of an employee with a disability if:
- (a) subsection 90F(1) applies (disregarding this section) to the employment of the employee; and
 - (b) the APCS that covers the employee's employment does not determine the basic periodic rate of pay for the employee as a rate that is specific to employees with disabilities; and
 - (c) the employee is eligible for the Supported Wage System; and
 - (d) the employee's employment is covered by a workplace agreement; and
 - (e) the workplace agreement provides for the payment of a basic periodic rate of pay to the employee at a rate that is not less than the rate (the SWS-compliant rate of pay) set in accordance with the Supported Wage System.

Note: The Supported Wage System was endorsed by the Commission in the Full Bench decision dated 10 October 1994 (print L5723).

93AA Meaning of nominal hours worked

Employees employed to work a specified number of hours

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, if an employee is employed by an employer to work a specified number of hours per week, the number of nominal hours worked, by the employee for the employer during a week, is to be worked out as follows:
 - (a) start with that specified number of hours;
 - (b) deduct all of the following:
 - (i) the number of hours (if any) in the week when the employee is absent from his or her work for the employer on leave which does not count as service;
 - (ii) the number of hours (if any) in the week (other than hours mentioned in subparagraph (i)) in relation to which the employer is prohibited by section 114 from making a payment to the employee.
- Note: The actual hours worked from week to week by an employee who is employed to work a specified number of hours per week may vary, due to averaging as mentioned in section 91C or to some other kind of flexible working hours scheme that applies to the employee's employment.
- (2) If an employee is employed on a full-time basis, but the terms and conditions of the employee's employment do not determine the number of hours in a week that is to constitute employment on a full-time basis for the employee, the employee is, for the purpose of subsection (1), taken to be employed to work 38 hours per week.

- (3) If an employee is employed to work a specified number (the number of non-week specified hours) of hours over a period (the non-week period) that is not a week (for example, a fortnight), then, for the purpose of subsection (1), the employee is taken to be employed to work the number of hours per week determined, subject to the regulations (if any), in accordance with the formula:

$$\text{Number of non-week specified hours} \times \frac{7}{\text{Number of days in non-week period}}$$

Employees not employed to work a specified number of hours

- (4) For the purposes of this Division, if subsection (1) does not apply to the employment of an employee by an employer, the number of nominal hours worked, by the employee for the employer during a week, is the lesser of the following:
- (a) the number worked out as follows:
- (i) start with the number of hours (if any) in the week that the employee both works, and is required or requested to work, for the employer;
 - (ii) add the number of hours (if any) in the week when the employee is absent from his or her work for the employer on leave that counts as service;
 - (iii) deduct the number of hours (if any) in the week in relation to which the employer is prohibited by section 114 from making a payment to the employee;
- (b) the number of nominal hours the employee would be taken to have worked for the employer under subsection (1) during the week if the employee were employed to work 38 hours per week.

Definition

- (5) In this section:

hour includes a part of an hour.

Note 1: The regulations may prescribe a different definition of nominal hours worked for piece rate employees (see section 93C).

Note 2: An employee's hours of work may be varied (by number or time) in accordance with a workplace agreement, award or contract of employment that binds the employee and his or her employer.

120H Outworker terms may bind eligible entities and employers

- (1) This section applies to an award made under section 118E or varied under section 118J if the award includes outworker terms.
- (2) In addition to the employers, organisations and persons that the award is expressed to bind under section 118I or 118J, as the case requires, the award may be expressed to bind, but only in relation to the outworker terms, an eligible entity or an employer that operates in an industry:

- (a) to which the award relates; or
- (b) in respect of which the outworker terms are applicable.

120I Binding additional eligible entities and employers

- (1) An organisation, an eligible entity or an employer may apply to the Commission for an order varying an award that includes outworker terms to bind an eligible entity or an employer to the award, but only in relation to the outworker terms.

Note 1: Paragraph (c)—the transitional award might already bind the new transitional employer, for example, because the new transitional employer happens to be a respondent to the transitional award.

Note 2: The new transitional employer must notify transferring transitional employees and lodge a copy of a notice with the Employment Advocate (see clauses 72J and 72K).

Period for which new transitional employer remains bound the transmitted award, to the extent to which it relates to the transferring transitional employee's employment with the new transitional employer, prevails over that certified agreement to the extent of any inconsistency with that certified agreement.

11 Interaction rules

Transmitted certified agreement

Existing collective agreements

- (2) If:
- (a) the new employer is bound by a collective agreement (the existing collective agreement); and
 - (b) the existing collective agreement would, but for this subclause, apply, according to its terms, to a transferring employee in relation to the transmitted certified agreement when the transferring employee becomes employed by the new employer; the existing collective agreement does not apply to the transferring employee.

- (3) Subclause (2) ceases to apply when whichever of the following first occurs:
- (a) the transmission period ends;
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the pre-reform certified agreement is a Division 3 pre-reform certified agreement; and
 - (ii) the new employer is an excluded employer (within the meaning of Schedule 13) when the period of 5 years beginning on the reform commencement ends;the period referred to in subparagraph (ii) ends.
- (4) Subclause (3) does not apply if:
- (a) the pre-reform certified agreement is a Division 3 pre-reform certified agreement; and
 - (b) the old employer is not an employer within the meaning of subsection 4AB(1) immediately before the time of transmission; and

12 Termination of transmitted pre-reform certified agreement

Transmitted agreement

- (1) This clause applies if subclause 10(1), (2) or (3) applies to a pre-reform certified agreement (the transmitted certified agreement).

AWA

- (2) Despite subclause 3(2) of Schedule 14, the transmitted certified agreement ceases to be in operation in relation to a transferring employee's employment with the new employer if an AWA between the new employer and the transferring employee comes into operation in relation to that employment after the time of transmission.

Note: Subclause 3(2) of Schedule 14 provides that a pre-reform certified agreement is normally only suspended while an AWA operates. The effect of subclause (2) of this clause is to terminate the operation of the transmitted certified agreement in relation to the transferring employee's employment when the AWA is made.

Modified operation of sections 170MH and 170MHA of the pre-reform Act

- (3) The transmitted certified agreement cannot be terminated under section 170MH or 170MHA of the pre-reform Act during the transmission period (even if the transmitted certified agreement has passed its nominal expiry date).

- (2) If an eligible instrument would, apart from this section, have the effect of requiring a relevant employer that employs fewer than 15 employees to pay redundancy pay, the eligible instrument does not have that effect.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2):
 - (a) whether a relevant employer employs fewer than 15 employees is to be worked out as at the time (the relevant time):
 - (i) when notice of the redundancy is given by the employer or by the employee who becomes redundant; or

 - (ii) any casual employee who, at the relevant time, has been engaged by the employer on a regular and systematic basis for at least 12 months (but not including any other casual employee).

7 Application

- (1) The amendments made by items 1 to 4 apply to:
 - (a) dealing with an industrial dispute by arbitration after the commencement of this Schedule; and
 - (b) preventing or settling an industrial dispute by making an award or order after the commencement of this Schedule; and
 - (c) maintaining the settlement of an industrial dispute by varying an award or order after the commencement of this Schedule;whether the industrial dispute arose before or arises after the commencement of this Schedule.
- (2) The amendment made by item 5 applies to:
 - (a) an eligible instrument made after the commencement of this Schedule that has the effect mentioned in subsection 167(2) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 as inserted by that item; and
 - (b) an eligible instrument, made before or after the commencement of this Schedule, that is amended or varied after the commencement of this Schedule with the result that it has that effect.
- (3) The amendment made by item 6 applies to the making of orders after the commencement of this Schedule.

8 Transitional—awards and orders of the Commission

- (1) If, during the period from the start of 26 March 2004 until the commencement of this Schedule, the Commission:
 - (a) made an award or order that had the effect of requiring an employer of fewer than 15 employees to pay redundancy pay; or
 - (b) varied an award or order, made before or during that period, with the result that it had that effect;then, from the commencement of this Schedule, the award or order ceases to have that effect.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a):
 - (a) whether an employer employs fewer than 15 employees is to be worked out as at the time (the relevant time):
 - (i) when notice of the redundancy is given by the employer or by the employee who becomes redundant; or
 - (ii) when the redundancy occurs;whichever happens first; and
 - (b) a reference to employees includes a reference to:

- (i) the employee who becomes redundant and any other employee who becomes redundant at the relevant time; and
 - (ii) any casual employee who, at the relevant time, has been engaged by the employer on a regular and systematic basis for at least 12 months (but not including any other casual employee).

9 Transitional—eligible instruments

Item applies to eligible instruments with small business redundancy pay requirements just before commencement

- (1) This item applies if, just before the commencement of this Schedule, an eligible instrument contained provisions requiring some or all relevant employers (the affected employers) that employ fewer than 15 employees to pay redundancy pay.

Eligible instruments that began to provide for small business redundancy pay between 26 March 2004 and commencement

- (2) If:
- (a) the eligible instrument was made before 26 March 2004 and just before 26 March 2004 the eligible instrument did not contain provisions requiring the affected employers to pay redundancy pay; or
 - (b) the eligible instrument was made on or after 26 March 2004;

then, from the commencement of this Schedule, the provisions do not have the effect of requiring any affected employers to pay redundancy pay.

Eligible instruments where Federal award suppressed a small business redundancy pay requirement that was present just before 26 March 2004

- (3) If:
- (a) just before 26 March 2004, the eligible instrument contained provisions requiring the affected employers to pay redundancy pay; and
 - (b) only because of a Federal award, the provisions did not, just before the commencement of this Schedule, have the effect of requiring a particular affected employer to pay redundancy pay;

then the provisions do not, at or at any time after the commencement of this Schedule, have that effect in relation to the particular affected employer.

Eligible instruments where certified agreement or AWA suppressed a small business redundancy pay requirement that was present just before 26 March 2004, and a Federal award would also have had that effect

- (4) If:
- (a) just before 26 March 2004, the eligible instrument contained provisions requiring the affected employers to pay redundancy pay; and
 - (b) just before the commencement of this Schedule:
 - (i) only because of a certified agreement or an AWA, the provisions did not have the effect of requiring a particular affected employer to pay redundancy pay; and
 - (ii) disregarding the certified agreement or the AWA, the provisions would still not have had that effect, and this would have been so only because of a Federal award;

then the provisions do not, at or at any time after the commencement of this Schedule, have that effect in relation to the particular affected employer.

Eligible instruments where small business redundancy pay requirement was present just before 26 March 2004 and a future Federal award starts to apply

- (5) If:
- (a) just before 26 March 2004, the eligible instrument contained provisions requiring the affected employers to pay redundancy pay; and
 - (b) neither subitem (3) nor subitem (4) applies; and
 - (c) the eligible instrument contains the provisions from the commencement of this Schedule until a later time (the award time) when a particular affected employer becomes bound by a Federal award; and
 - (d) the Federal award applies in relation to some or all of the particular affected employer's employees (the affected employees) to whom the requirement to pay redundancy pay relates;

then, from the award time, the provisions do not have the effect of requiring the particular affected employer to pay redundancy pay in respect of the affected employees.
