1	to give a notice in relation to the person under subsection 16(1) in
2	relation to one or more extradition offences.
3	Application of section—after section 16 notice given
4	(2) This section also applies to a person who is on remand under 5	section 15 at a particular time (the waiver time ) if:
6	(a) before the waiver time, the Attorney-General gave a notice in 7	relation to the person under subsection 16(1) in relation to 8	one or more extradition offences; and
9	(b) as at the waiver time, a magistrate has not done either of the 10	following:
11	(i) advised the Attorney-General under subparagraph
12	18(2)(b)(ii) that the person has consented to be
13	surrendered in relation to the extradition offence or all of the extradition offences;
14	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
15	(ii) determined under subsection 19(1) that the person is 16	eligible for surrender in relation to any of the extradition offences.
17	offences.
18	Person may inform a magistrate that he or she wishes to waive
19	extradition
20	(3) The person may inform a magistrate that he or she wishes to waive
21	extradition in relation to:
22	(a) if an extradition request has not been made for the surrender
23	of the person-the extradition offence or all of the extradition
24	offences specified in the extradition arrest warrant to which 25	the remand relates; or
26	(b) if an extradition request has been made for the surrender of 27	the person—the extradition offence or all of the extradition
28	offences for which surrender of the person is sought.
29	Magistrate must make order etc. if satisfied of matters
30	(4) If a magistrate is satisfied of the matters in subsections (5)(a), (c)
31	and (d) in relation to the person, and has informed the person as 32	mentioned in paragraph (5)(b), the magistrate must:
33	(a) by warrant in the statutory form, order that the person be
34	committed to prison pending a determination by the
35	Attorney-General under subsection $15B(2)$ that the person be

1	surrendered, or not be surrendered, in relation to the 2	extradition offence or extradition offences mentioned in
3	paragraph (3)(a) or (b), as the case may be; and
4	(b) advise the Attorney-General in writing that the person wishes
5	to waive extradition for those offences.
6	(5) Before making an order under paragraph $(4)(a)$ in relation to a
7	person, the magistrate:
8	(a) must be satisfied that the person voluntarily informed a
9	magistrate under subsection (3); and
10	(b) must inform the person:
11	(i) that, once the order is made, the person cannot apply for 12	the order to be revoked; and
13	(ii) of the consequences of the fact that the extradition
14	country concerned may not have given, and if the order
15	is made will not be required to give, a speciality
16	assurance (of a kind mentioned in subsection $22(4)$ ) in 17	relation to the person; and
18	(iii) that certain requirements in this Act that would 19	otherwise apply in respect of the person will not apply if 20	the order is made (including, but not limited to,
21	requirements relating to extradition objections); and
22	(iv) that, after the order is made, the person will be
23	surrendered to the extradition country concerned if the
24	Attorney-General determines under subsection 15B(2)
25	that the person is to be so surrendered; and
26	(c) having informed the person as mentioned in paragraph (b)—
27	must be satisfied that the person has confirmed that he or she
28	wishes to waive extradition as mentioned in subsection (3);
29	and
30	(d) must be satisfied that the person is legally represented, or was 31	given an adequate opportunity to be legally represented, in
32	the proceedings before the magistrate.
33	Rules that apply until magistrate decides not to make an order
34	(6) After a person informs a magistrate under subsection (3) that the
35	person wishes to waive extradition in relation to an extradition
36	offence or extradition offences, the following rules apply unless 37	and until a magistrate decides not to make an order under
38	paragraph $(4)(a)$ in relation to the person:

119A Consent to accessory extradition—extradition offences not2specified in subsection 16(1) notice etc.

3	Scope
4	(1) This section applies if:
5	(a) a notice under subsection $16(1)$ has been given in relation to 6	a person in respect of whom an extradition request has been
7	made by an extradition country; and
8	(b) either:
9	(i) in proceedings under section 18, the person consents in 10	accordance with that section to being surrendered to the
11	extradition country in relation to the extradition offence
12	or all of the extradition offences to which the notice
13	relates; or
14	(ii) in proceedings under subsection 19(1), a magistrate
15	determines that the person is eligible for surrender to the 16	extradition country in relation to one or more of the 17	extradition offences to which the notice relates; and
18	(c) the extradition country requested in the extradition request
19	that the person be surrendered for one or more extradition
20 21	offences (the additional extradition offences ) that are not specified in the notice.
22	Consent to being surrendered in respect of the additional
22 23	extradition offences
23	exituation offences
24	(2) If the magistrate is satisfied that there is no extradition objection in
25	relation to any of the additional extradition offences, the magistrate
26	must, in those proceedings, ask the person whether he or she
27	consents to being surrendered to the extradition country in respect
28	of the additional extradition offences.
29	(3) Before asking the person whether he or she consents to being 30	surrendered in respect of the additional extradition offences, the 31	magistrate must:
32	(a) either:
33	(i) be satisfied that the person is legally represented; or
34	(ii) if the magistrate is not so satisfied—give the person an 35	adequate opportunity to be legally represented; and

1	Division 5—Extradition to Australia from other countries
2	Extradition Act 1988
3	46 At the end of Part IV
4	Add:
5	44A Persons permanently surrendered to Australia
6	(1) This section applies if:
7	(a) a person is surrendered by a country to Australia; and
8 9 10	<ul> <li>(b) before the person is surrendered to Australia, the Attorney-General of Australia gives an undertaking to the country:</li> </ul>
11 12	<ul><li>(i) that life imprisonment will not be imposed on the person; or</li></ul>
13 14	<ul><li>(ii) specifying the maximum period of imprisonment that may be imposed on the person;</li></ul>
15 16	in the event that the person is found to have committed a particular offence or offences punishable by Australian law.
17 18	(2) The person must not, under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or Territory, be sentenced to:
19	(a) if subparagraph (1)(b)(i) applies—life imprisonment; or
20	(b) if subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) applies—a period of imprisonment
21	that is more than the period specified in the 22	Attorney-General's undertaking.
23	(3) For an offence that is to be prosecuted in a State or Territory, the 24	Attorney-General of Australia must, before giving an undertaking,
25	consult with the Attorney-General of the State or Territory.
26	(4) If the undertaking mentioned in subsection (1) is given in writing,
27	the undertaking is not a legislative instrument.
28	(5) To avoid doubt, the undertaking mentioned in subsection (1) must 29	not specify a period that is longer than:
30	(a) in the event that the person is found to have committed a
31	particular offence—the maximum period of imprisonment
32	that applies to the offence; or

1 2 3	(b) in the event that the person is found to have committed particular offences—the total of each maximum period of imprisonment that applies to each offence.
4	Division 6—Prosecution instead of extradition
5	Extradition Act 1988
6	47 Subsections 45(1), (2) and (3)
7	Repeal the subsections, substitute:
8	Offence
9	(1) A person commits an offence if:
10 11	(a) a magistrate in a State or Territory remands the person under section 15; and
12 13	(b) the person engaged in conduct outside Australia at an earlier time; and
14 15 16 17 18	<ul> <li>(c) the conduct, or equivalent conduct, would have constituted an offence (the notional Australian offence) against a law of the Commonwealth, or the State or Territory, if the conduct or equivalent conduct had occurred in the State or Territory at the earlier time.</li> </ul>
19 20	Note: This subsection creates an offence distinct from the notional Australian offence.
21	Absolute liability
22 23 24 25 26	(2) Absolute liability applies to paragraphs (1)(a) and (b), and to the circumstance in paragraph (1)(c) that the conduct, or equivalent conduct, referred to in that paragraph would have constituted the notional Australian offence if the conduct or equivalent conduct had occurred in the State or Territory at the earlier time.
27 28 29	Note: Paragraph (3)(a) provides for physical and fault elements etc. to apply in determining whether conduct would have constituted the notional Australian offence.

Extradition and Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Legislation Amendment Bill No. , 2011

1 2			Determining whether conduct would have constituted notional Australian offence
3		(3)	In determining whether the conduct, or equivalent conduct,
4 5			referred to in paragraph (1)(c) would have constituted the notional Australian offence:
6			(a) the physical elements and fault elements (however
7			described), if any, that apply in relation to the notional
8			Australian offence have effect; and
9			(b) any defences or special liability provisions (however
10			described) that apply in relation to the notional Australian
11			offence have effect; and
12			(c) any procedures or limitations (however described) that apply
13			in relation to the prosecution of the notional Australian
14			offence have effect; and
15			(d) if the conduct outside Australia consisted of 2 or more acts or 16			omissions, regard may be had to all, some or only one of 17			those acts or omissions.
18		(3A)	Subsection (3) does not limit the Judiciary Act 1903.
19 20 21			Note: Division 1 of Part X, and subsection 79(1), of the Judiciary Act 1903 apply various State or Territory laws in relation to persons charged with offences against Commonwealth laws.
22			Penalty for offence
23		(3B)	The maximum penalty for an offence against subsection (1) is the 24		. ,	maximum penalty that applied to the notional Australian offence at
25			the time the conduct referred to in paragraph (1)(b) was engaged
26			in.
27			Offence is indictable
28		(3C)	An offence against subsection (1) is an indictable offence.
29			Attorney-General's consent to prosecution of offence
30		(3D)	Proceedings for an offence against subsection (1) must not be
31		. /	commenced without the Attorney-General's written consent.

7	(a) an investigation in relation to an offence punishable by a
8 9	maximum penalty of imprisonment for 3 years or more has commenced in Australia; and 10	(b) the use of a surveillance device (however described) is
11	reasonably necessary for the purpose of obtaining
12	information relevant to:
13	(i) the commission of the offence; or
14	(ii) the identity or location of the offenders.
15	(2) Australia may request an appropriate authority of a foreign
16	country:
17	(a) to authorise the use of a surveillance device (however
18	described), in accordance with the law of that country, to 19	obtain the information referred to in paragraph (1)(b); and
20	(b) to arrange for any such information that has been obtained to
21	be sent to Australia.
22	(3) Subsection (4) applies if:
23	(a) Australia makes a request under this section; and
24	(b) the foreign country obtains any information referred to in
25	paragraph (1)(b) by means of a process authorised by the law
26	of that country other than the use (as requested by Australia)
27	of a surveillance device.
28	(4) The information obtained by the foreign country:
29	(a) is not inadmissible in evidence in a proceeding that relates to
30	the investigation; or
31	(b) is not precluded from being used for the purposes of the
32	investigation;
33	on the ground alone that it was obtained otherwise than in
34	accordance with the request.

1 15F Requests by foreign countries for surveillance devices

2	(1) The Attorney-General may, in his or her discretion, authorise an
3	eligible law enforcement officer, in writing, to apply for a
4	surveillance device warrant under section 14 of the Surveillance
5	Devices Act 2004 if the Attorney-General is satisfied that:
6	(a) an investigation, or investigative proceeding, relating to a
7	criminal matter involving an offence against the law of a
8	foreign country (the requesting country ) that is punishable
9	by a maximum penalty of imprisonment for 3 years or more,
10	imprisonment for life or the death penalty has commenced in
11	the requesting country; and
12	(b) the requesting country requests the Attorney-General to
13	arrange for the use of a surveillance device; and
14	(c) the requesting country has given appropriate undertakings in
15	relation to:
16	(i) ensuring that the information obtained as a result of the
17	use of the surveillance device will only be used for the
18	purpose for which it is communicated to the requesting
19	country; and
20	(ii) the destruction of a document or other thing containing
21	information obtained as a result of the use of the
22	surveillance device; and

1	(a) an investigation relating to a criminal matter has commenced
2	in Australia; and
3 4	<ul> <li>(b) a person in a foreign country is capable of giving assistance in relation to the investigation;</li> </ul>
5	Australia may request the foreign country to authorise the carrying 6	out of a forensic procedure on the person for the purpose of giving
7	assistance in relation to the investigation.
8	(3) To avoid doubt, Australia may request that a forensic procedure be 9	carried out in the foreign country even if, under Australian law, the 10	forensic procedure could not have been carried out by using
11	processes similar to those used in the foreign country.
12	(4) Subsection (5) applies if:
13	(a) Australia makes a request under this section; and
14	(b) the foreign country obtains any thing relevant to the 15	proceeding or investigation by means of a process authorised
16	by the law of that country other than the carrying out (as 17	requested by Australia) of a forensic procedure on a
18	particular person.
19	(5) The thing obtained by the foreign country:
20	(a) is not inadmissible in evidence in the proceeding; or
21	(b) is not precluded from being used for the purposes of the
22	investigation;
23	on the ground alone that it was obtained otherwise than in
24	accordance with the request.
25	Division 2—Requests by foreign countries
26	28B Requests by foreign countries for forensic procedures
27	(1) If a foreign country requests that a forensic procedure be carried
28	out on a person, the Attorney-General may authorise a constable to
29	apply, in accordance with Part ID of the Crimes Act 1914, to a
30	magistrate for an order for the carrying out of the forensic
31	procedure on the person, so long as, if the person is a suspect
32	within the meaning of subsection $23WA(1)$ of that Act, the 33	constable is an authorised applicant within the meaning of that
34	subsection.

1	(2) The Attorney-General must not authorise a constable under
2	subsection (1) unless the Attorney-General is satisfied of the
3	following matters:
4	(a) a request has been made by a foreign country that a forensic
5	procedure be carried out on a person;
6	(b) unless the person is a child or an incapable person—the 7	foreign country has:
8	(i) started investigating whether the person has committed
9	a foreign serious offence against its laws; or 10	(ii) started proceedings against the person for a foreign
11	serious offence;
12	(c) the person is, or is believed to be, in Australia;
13	(d) the foreign country has given:
14	(i) appropriate undertakings in relation to the retention, use	е
15	and destruction of forensic material, or of information
16	obtained from analysis of that forensic material; and
17	(ii) any other undertakings that the Attorney-General
18	considers necessary;

27	(i) the consent of the parent or guardian cannot reasonably	,
28	be obtained or has been withdrawn;
29	(ii) the parent or guardian is a suspect in relation to the 30	foreign serious offence; and
31	(b) believe that, having regard to the best interests of the child o
32	incapable person, it is appropriate to make the authorisation.
33	28C Providing forensic evidence to foreign countries
24	(1) If:
34	(a) a foreign country requests that a forensic procedure be

Extradition and Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Legislation Amendment Bill 2011	No.
, 2011	89

1 2	(b) to arrange for any such information that has been obtained to be sent to Australia.
3	(3) Subsection (4) applies if:
4	(a) Australia makes a request under this section; and
5	(b) the foreign country obtains any information referred to in
6	paragraph (1)(b) by means of a process authorised by the law
7	of that country other than the use (as requested by Australia)
8	of a surveillance device.
9	(4) The information obtained by the foreign country:
10	(a) is not inadmissible in evidence in a proceeding that relates to
11	the investigation; or
12 13	(b) is not precluded from being used for the purposes of the investigation;
14	on the ground alone that it was obtained otherwise than in
15	accordance with the request.
16	15CA Requests by foreign countries for surveillance devices
17	(1) The Attorney-General may, in his or her discretion, authorise an
18	eligible law enforcement officer, in writing, to apply for a
19	surveillance device warrant under section 14 of the Surveillance
20	Devices Act 2004 if the Attorney-General is satisfied that:
21	(a) an investigation, or investigative proceeding, relating to a
22 23	criminal matter involving an offence against the law of a foreign country (the requesting country ) that is punishable
23 24	by a maximum penalty of imprisonment for 3 years or more,
25	imprisonment for life or the death penalty has commenced in
26	the requesting country; and
27	(b) the requesting country requests the Attorney-General to
28	arrange for the use of a surveillance device; and
29	(c) the requesting country has given appropriate undertakings in
30	relation to:
31	(i) ensuring that the information obtained as a result of the
32	use of the surveillance device will only be used for the
33	purpose for which it is communicated to the requesting
34	country; and
35	(ii) the destruction of a document or other thing containing information obtained as a result of the use of the
36 37	surveillance device; and
51

1 2	(iii) any other matter the Attorney-General considers appropriate.
3	(2) In this section:
4 5 6	eligible law enforcement officer means a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (c) of the definition of law enforcement officer set out in subsection 6(1) of the Surveillance Devices Act 2004 .
7 8	investigative proceeding means a proceeding covered by paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of proceeding .
9 10	3 Subsection 15CA(2) (definition of investigative proceeding ) Repeal the definition.
