

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	iii
MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE	v
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	vi
TABLE OF CONTENTS	vii
KEY POINTS	xvii
FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS	xxi
PART I	1
CHAPTER 1 – INTRODUCTION
The establishment of the Senate Select Committee	3
The background to the 1991 bids for John Fairfax Ltd	4
The 1991 Parliamentary inquiry into the print media	5
Political lobbying by parties to the Fairfax bidding process	5
The structure of the Tourang bid for Fairfax	6
The restructuring of Tourang	8
Criticism of the role of the Foreign Investment Review Board	10
The 1993 decision to increase The Telegraph's shareholding in Fairfax	10
Structure of this report	12

CHAPTER 2 – CONDUCT OF THE INQUIRY

Significance and appropriateness of the inquiry	15
Procedural considerations	17
Written submissions	18
The list of witnesses	18
Use of the committee's power to summons witnesses	19
Claim of public interest immunity by the Treasurer	21
Justified or unwarranted secrecy	29
Sub-judice matters	30
Conclusion	31

PART II – THE PERCENTAGE PLAYERS: THE 1991 AND 1993 DECISIONS

CHAPTER 3 – THE 1991 DECISIONS

Background to the decisions	37
John Fairfax Group prior to receivership	37
The Fairfax auction process	38
THE PLAYERS: IN DETAIL	40
Receiver and manager	40
Advisers to the receiver and manager - Baring Brothers Burrows (Barings)	40
THE BIDDERS IN THE AUCTION	47
Australian Independent Newspapers	47

Independent Newspapers plc	48
Tourang	49
THE BIDDERS' EVIDENCE TO THE COMMITTEE	50
AIN	50
Errors of fact and analysis in FIRB Minute and inappropriateness of FIRB's procedures	51
Antagonism towards AIN	56
The 'national interest' and definition of control in foreign investment proposals	61
INP	62
INP's FIRB experiences	62
INP's bid for an increased share in APN	64
TOURANG	64
Who said what at the meeting of 18 July 1991?	65
Mr Packer's withdrawal	69
Tourang II's application to FIRB	70
PRIME MINISTER MR HAWKE	75
Ministerial freedom	75
Mr Hawke and Mr Black	76
TREASURERS	79
Mr Keating	79
Mr Kerin	79

Mr Willis	79
Mr Willis - outstanding questions	79
Mr Dawkins	80
FIRB	81
FIRB's Treatment of AIN	81
Questions for Mr George Pooley	82
Questions for Mr Tony Hinton	83
Questions for Dr Darryl Roberts	84
FIRB's request to Barings on 6 December 1991 for information about AIN	85
'National interest'- does FIRB know what it is that it's advising on?	88
FIRB Guidelines	90
Release of confidential information - how did Mr Black know what the FIRB recommendation to the Treasurer was?	90
CONCLUSION	90
CHAPTER 4 - THE 1993 DECISION
Introduction	93
Background	93
FIRB procedures	96
Treasurer Dawkins	97
Conclusion	99

PART III – BALANCED COVERAGE	101
CHAPTER 5 – CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE CONTENT OF NEWSPAPERS
Conversations between Mr Keating and Mr Black	103
The term 'balance' in the discussions	103
The meaning of 'balance'	109
Key points of agreement regarding the conversations	113
'Balance' as editorial control over journalists	113
The first element - the exercise of editorial control at Fairfax	120
The second element - balance as general bias/partisanship in political coverage	121
The third element - balance, national interest and cultural identity	130
CHAPTER 6 – PROPRIETY
Interactions between governments and the media - previous experience	139
Summary of Overseas Practices	140
The United Kingdom	143
Canadian reports	146
US approaches	150
Australian inquiries	155
Balance and the propriety of Mr Keating's actions	163

PART IV – FOREIGN INVESTMENT AND THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT REVIEW BOARD 171

CHAPTER 7 – FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICIES IN AUSTRALIA

Overview of foreign investment policy	173
The need for a foreign investment regime	174
Community expectations	175
Australia's obligations to the international community	176
History of foreign investment in Australia	178
FIRB's jurisdiction	181
Foreign investment policy for the media	182
Cross media rules	183
Canwest - control and influence	187
Foreign investment policy for newspapers	188
Sources to ascertain government policies relating to newspapers	189
Newspaper policy in the 1990s	190
Conclusion	192

CHAPTER 8 – FOREIGN INVESTMENT ADMINISTRATION IN AUSTRALIA

FIRB's functions are advisory	193
FIRB as an non-statutory body	196
The FIRB and the foreign investment branch of treasury	197

Past FIRB experience in assessing newspaper applications	198
Change in the culture of FIRB over time	199
Features of the FIRB regulatory system	200
Application guidelines under FIRB	201
Comparison of FIRB with other regulatory or review agencies	208
Testing the validity and accuracy of information	210
FIRB record keeping and internal processes	211
The Committee's view of FIRB guidelines	212
CHAPTER 9 – THE FIRB DILEMMA
Introduction	213
The government's right to govern ...	214
... versus the public's right to know ...	215
What is wrong with the FIRB model	215
Problems in the design and operation of FIRB	216
FIRB as a processor of applications	217
FIRB and print media policy	218
Accountability	219
The way forward is to start again	221

CHAPTER 10 – A REVAMPED FIRB

Overview	223
Basic aims of foreign investment policy	223
Restructure of the system	225
Setting the legislative scene	226
Getting the administering agency right	231
Review of FIC decisions	235
FIC's Communications Strategy	236

PART V – VIEWS EXPRESSED BY DR HEWSON 237

CHAPTER 11 – THE VIEWS EXPRESSED TO MR CONRAD BLACK BY DR HEWSON	239
---	-----

DISSENTING REPORT THE FAIRFAX INQUIRY: A PARLIAMENTARY BLACK HOLE

	Dissent Page No
INTRODUCTION	1
CHAPTER 1 – CONDUCT OF THE INQUIRY	5
CHAPTER 2 – PUBLIC INTEREST IMMUNITY	17
CHAPTER 3 – FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY AND PROCEDURES	23
CHAPTER 4 – BALANCED COVERAGE	31

RESERVATION BY SENATOR KERNOT

Reservation Page No
1

APPENDICES

Appendix Page No

Appendix A	Terms of Reference	1
Appendix B	List of Written Submissions	9
Appendix C	List of Witnesses	13
Appendix D	Clerk's Advice on the Compulsion of Witnesses	19
Appendix E	Opinion of Mr D Jackson QC	25
Appendix F	Further Opinion of Mr David Jackson QC	61
Appendix G	FIRB Minute of 5 December 1991	75
Appendix H	Opinion of Mr Tony Morris QC	93
Appendix I	Clerk's Advice on sub-judice	141
Appendix J	References	151
Appendix K	Treasurer's Letters re: Public Interest Immunity	159