1.3 Business conducted in the Senate

This section contains graphs showing a breakdown of how the Senate spent its time in 2012, as well as comparisons with previous years. For this purpose, business has been broken down into the following categories:

Business of the Senate includes disallowance motions, motions to refer matters to standing committees and motions concerning the qualification of a senator. It has precedence over government business and general business for the day on which it is listed, except on Monday between 10 am and 2 pm, Tuesday, between 12.30 and 2 pm, Wednesday between 9.30 am and 12.45 pm, and for a period of 2 hours and 20 minutes on Thursday mornings.

Government business is business initiated by a minister and includes all debate on government bills. Government business takes precedence over general business except for a period of 2 hours and 20 minutes on Thursday mornings and 2½ hours on Thursday afternoons.

General business is initiated by senators who are not ministers. It includes motions to take note of answers, most notices of motion, consideration of committee reports and government responses and matters of public interest. General business takes precedence over government business on Thursdays as described above.

Questions include question time and additional answers given by ministers at the end of question time.

Urgency motions and matters of public importance (MPIs) may be proposed by senators on any sitting day pursuant to standing order 75. At the conclusion of the debate there is no vote taken on the substantive issue of the matter or motion. However, in the case of urgency motions, a procedural vote is taken as to whether the matter is considered urgent or not.

Other business includes prayers, petitions, postponements and ceremonial business.

Adjournment: Note that the time for the adjournment debate is not included in the figures shown.

Total time, by type of business - 1 January to 31 December 2012

Proportion of time spent according to the type of business: 2003 to 2012

(* indicates an election year)

Percentage of time, by type of business: 1 January to 31 December 2012
and breakdown of government business

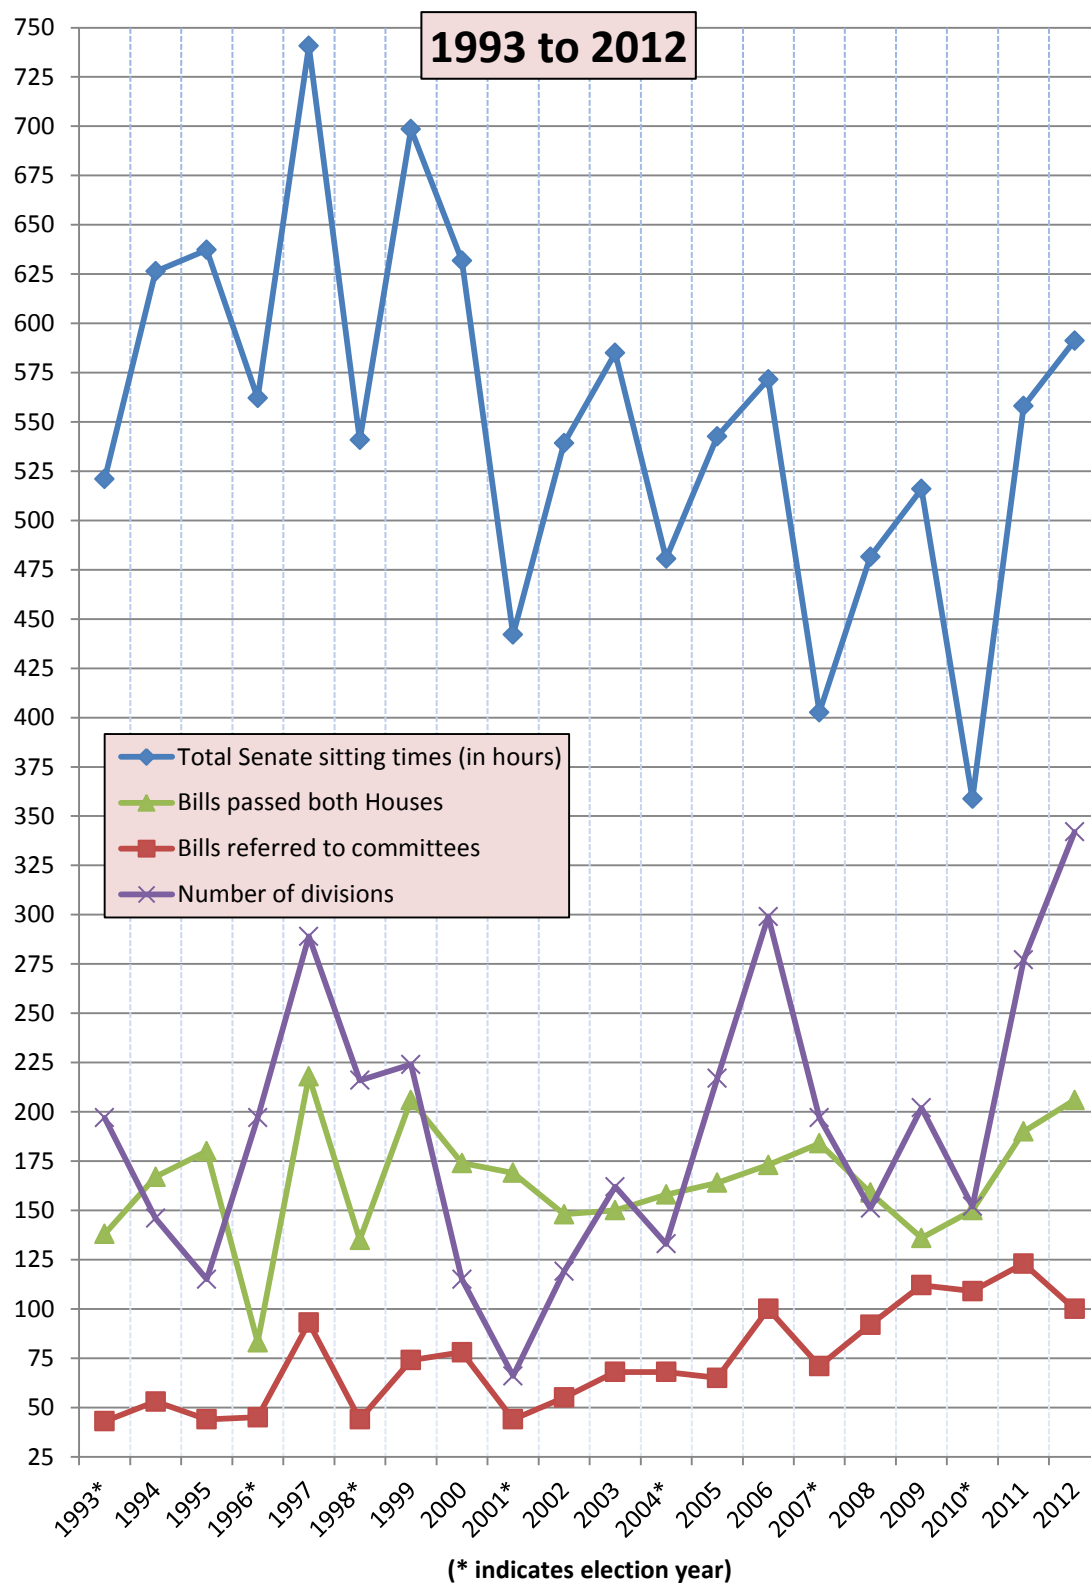

- government legislation – 46%
- other government business – 4%

(* indicates an election year)

(on 24 November 2008 the format of question time was changed to allow 2 supplementaries per question)

2.3 Second reading—Amendments moved

The second reading debate is a policy debate relating to the principles of a particular bill. A senator may speak for up to 20 minutes and make a further contribution if a second reading amendment is moved. The second reading debate is opened by a senator sponsoring the bill who outlines the policies of the bill, and is usually closed by the same senator who may respond to issues raised during the debate. The debate culminates in a vote signifying that the bill is agreed to, or rejected, in principle.

Second reading amendments do not affect the text of a bill. The amendment is moved to the motion for the second reading (“That this bill be now read a second time”), and is generally used to express an opinion about the bill or related policy issues; to propose the reference of the bill or related matters to a committee; or to delay further consideration of the bill. In some circumstances the effect of the amendment, if agreed to, is to defeat the bill.

For more information on the legislative process see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation.

2.4 Committee of the whole—Consideration

The committee of the whole process provides an opportunity for senators to consider bills in detail. Amendments moved in committee of the whole seek to change, delete or add words in the bill that may affect the final content of the law. Under section 53 of the Constitution the Senate cannot amend a bill imposing taxation, or a bill appropriating money for the ordinary annual services of government (an appropriation bill). It also may not amend a bill in a way which will increase any proposed charge or burden. If the Senate wishes to make such amendments, it must request the House of Representatives to amend the bill on its behalf.

Note that for several bills, amendments were determined after the expiration of the allotment of time for consideration of the bill. Although these amendments were not technically considered and determined in committee of the whole, these amendments are included in the figures for this section.

For more information on the legislative process see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation.

2.5 Bills negatived or discharged from Notice Paper

The Senate often indicates its disagreement with a bill by rejecting the motion for the second or third reading, and that action is taken to be a rejection of the bill.

A senator may also move that an order of the day (a matter which the Senate has ordered to be considered on a particular day) relating to a bill be discharged from the Notice Paper, pursuant to standing order 97(4).

When the two Houses do not initially agree on the contents of a bill, it is usual for negotiations to continue. Amendments to amendments may be made or alternative amendments proposed until an acceptable compromise is reached. Occasionally, the impasse cannot be broken and a bill is laid aside and not proceeded with.

For more information on the legislative process, see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation.

* In accordance with House of Representatives standing order 42.

2.6 Amendments and requests—Disagreements

Before it can become a law, a bill must be agreed to by both the Senate and the House of Representatives in precisely the same form. If there is a disagreement over amendments or requests, a bill may be transmitted between the two Houses a number of times until the Houses finally agree to it in the same form or it is abandoned. These negotiations on amendments and requests are conducted by the consideration of messages between the Houses.

For more information on the legislative process, see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation and No. 15 – Communication Between the Houses - Dealing with Messages.

Bills on which there were disagreements between the Houses: 2

Defence Trade Controls Bill 2011

The Senate made 27 amendments to the bill.

The House agreed to 26 amendments and disagreed to 1 amendment made by the Senate (30 October 2012).

The Senate did not insist on its amendment (31 October 2012).

Bill passed both Houses.

Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Amendment (Independent Expert Scientific Committee on Coal Seam Gas and Large Coal Mining Development) Bill 2012

The Senate made 13 amendments to the bill.

The House agreed to 2 amendments and disagreed to 11 amendments made by the Senate and made 11 Government amendments in their place (17 September 2012).

The Senate reported the message from the House (18 September 2012).

The Senate did not insist on its amendments and agreed to the amendments made by the House in their place (10 October 2012).

Bill passed both Houses.

2.7 Bills, or provisions of bills, referred to committees

Bills may be referred to committees at any stage for inquiry and report. The provisions of many bills are referred before the bill is received from the House of Representatives to maximise the time available for the committee inquiry.

Committees may table reports on any sitting day, or may present them when the Senate is not sitting, in which case the report is tabled on the next available sitting day.

For more information refer to Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 9 – Consideration of Legislation and No. 7 – Referring Matters to Committees and Senate Brief No. 4 – Senate Committees.

3.1 Notices of motion for disallowance

Many Acts of Parliament delegate to the executive government the power to make detailed rules and regulations (legislative instruments). Instruments made in this way are subject to the power of either House to veto or disallow them.

In most cases, within 15 sitting days after tabling a senator may give notice of a motion to disallow the legislative instrument. If the motion is agreed to, the instrument is disallowed and ceases to have effect. If a notice of motion to disallow a legislative instrument has not been resolved or withdrawn within 15 sitting days after having been given, the instrument is deemed to have been disallowed and automatically ceases to have effect.

For more information see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 1 – Disallowance.

3.4 Matters of public importance

A matter of public importance (or urgency motion) may be proposed by a senator for consideration on any sitting day and must have the support of four other senators before the matter can be considered. Notice is not required so that newly emerging matters can be considered by the Senate. There is no question before the chair during debate on matters of public importance so no vote is taken at the end of the discussion.

3.5 Motions agreed to

All decisions of the Senate begin as motions moved by senators. The first step is usually for a senator to give notice of his or her intention to move a motion. A notice of motion therefore signals a potential decision of the Senate. Notices of motion may seek the Senate's endorsement on an issue of domestic or foreign policy or recognition of a particular achievement or event. Others relate to the machinery of Senate business and include notices for the introduction of bills or extensions of time for committees to report, among other things.

Most notices of motion fall into one of three main categories. Business of the Senate, Government Business or General Business. Many notices of motion are dealt with by the Senate during discovery of formal business. Other notices are dealt with when the time for considering Business of the Senate or Government Business is reached in the program.

This table shows only substantive resolutions relating to public affairs agreed to by the Senate. Routine and procedural motions are not listed.

3.7 Orders for the production of documents

The power to require the production of information is one of the most significant powers available to a legislature to enable it to carry out its functions of scrutinising legislation and the performance of the executive arm of government.

Orders for the production of documents most frequently require the tabling of documents in the possession of ministers, government departments and agencies, although occasionally an order may require the creation of a document. The order will generally describe the documents sought and specify a date for their tabling.

For more information, see Brief Guide to Senate Procedure No. 11 – Orders for Production of Documents.

3.10 Questions

Questions without notice

Questions asked of ministers in the Senate at question time are asked without notice, although a senator may informally advise a minister of the subject of a proposed question.

	2010	2011	2012
Australian Labor Party	332	430	429
Coalition	551	736	745

Family First Party	33	17	—
Senator Xenophon	24	42	39
Total	1052	1453	1492

Questions on notice

Where a senator seeks a detailed response, particularly where statistical information is sought, that question is more appropriately submitted in written form and placed on notice. A senator who places a question on notice and does not receive a reply within 30 days may seek from the relevant minister in the Senate an explanation as to why an answer has not been provided. There is no limit to the number of questions a senator may place on notice.

	2010	2011	2012
Australian Labor Party	0	1	1
Coalition	659	938	1000
