

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on your inquiry.

I think it is a travesty of justice and democracy that you have only been given one day for hearings and that such a short time has elapsed from the introduction of the bills and the time you are due to report.

I hope that you will strongly protest and condemn the process in your report - how you can do justice to your task is beyond me.

yours faithfully
Fay Lawrence