9. SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—PROCEDURE FOR BALLOT.—The Order of the Day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question :—

(1) That this House do at its next sitting proceed to determine the opinion of Members as to the district in New South Wales in which the Seat of Government of the Commonwealth should be situated.

(2) That the selection be made from among the districts mentioned in the Schedule hereto.

(3) That the following be the method of selection, and that so much of the Standing Orders be suspended as would prevent the House from adopting such method :—

An open exhaustive ballot shall be taken without debate in the following manner :—

(a) Ballot-papers shall be distributed to honorable Members, containing the names of the sites mentioned in the Schedule hereto.

(b) Members shall place a cross opposite the name of the site for which they desire to vote, and shall sign the paper.

(c) The ballot-papers shall then be examined by the Clerk.

(d) If, on the first examination, any site proves to have received an absolute majority of votes, the Speaker shall report the name of such site to the House, and such site shall be deemed to be the one preferred by honorable Members.

(e) If no site receives an absolute majority of votes, then the name of the site receiving the smallest number of votes shall be reported to the House and shall be struck out.

(f) If any two of the sites should receive an equal number of votes, such number of votes being the smallest, then the House shall ascertain in the customary manner which of such sites should, in the opinion of honorable Members, be further balloted for, and the name of the other shall be struck out.

(g) A further ballot shall then be taken on the names of the remaining sites, and the name of the site receiving the majority of votes shall be reported to the House by the Speaker, and such site shall be deemed to be the site preferred by honorable Members.

(h) The total number of votes given for each site shall be reported to the House after each ballot.

(i) The House shall thereupon resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole on the Bill.
