“Urgency” Matter—

That matter proposed to be raised (relating to margins case) was out of order as it was sub judice, 85.

That proposed discussion was in order; in accordance with Standing Order No. 106A he had determined that matter was in order before he read terms to House (Point of Order having been raised that two persons named had been witnesses before Royal Commission on Espionage and that discussion proposed could have effect on Commission's views on their credibility as witnesses), 257.

Mr. Speaker having selected one of two matters presented on same day—

That it was not in order to read to the House as part of a proposed Motion of Dissent the terms of the matter not selected for discussion, 265.

Dissent from Ruling moved (Mr. Evatt); negatived, 265-6.

That in selecting matter for discussion the Chair had exercised authority under Standing Order No. 106A and a Motion of Dissent would not be in order as no Ruling had been given, 266.

Proposed motion of dissent (Mr. Keon) not accepted, 359.

That neither of two matters proposed for discussion were in order as, in each case, subject matter was substantially in same terms as matter placed before House on previous day which did not receive necessary support, 371.

Words used—That words need not be withdrawn.
