(In the Committee.)

Bill, by leave, taken as a whole, and debated.

Mr. Wentworth moved the following amendment:—

Clause 5, page 2, at the end of sub-clause (3.) add the following paragraph:—

“(d) he makes a statutory declaration by which he declares either—

- (i) that he is not, and never has been, a member of a communist party; or
- (ii) that, except as previously disclosed by him to the Attorney-General in connexion with his proposed appointment, he is not, and never has been, a member of a communist party.”

Debate continued.

Amendment negatived.

On the motion of Mr. Beale, clause 6 was omitted, and the following clause inserted in place thereof, after debate:—

“6.—(1.) In addition to any other powers and duties, a Commonwealth Police Powers, &c., of Officer has— Commonwealth
Police Officers.

(a) the like powers and duties as are conferred or imposed on a constable by or under a law of the Commonwealth; and

(b) in relation to—

- (i) the laws of the Commonwealth;
- (ii) matters in connexion with property of the Commonwealth or of an authority of the Commonwealth; and
- (iii) matters arising on or in connexion with land or premises owned or occupied by the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth, the like powers and duties as are conferred or imposed on a constable, or on an officer of police of the same rank as the Commonwealth Police Officer, in the place in which the Commonwealth Police Officer is acting.

“(2.) Where any provisions of a law of a State apply in relation to offences against the laws of the Commonwealth, those provisions so apply as if—

(a) any reference in those provisions to a constable included a reference to a Commonwealth Police Officer; and

(b) any reference in those provisions to an officer of Police of a particular rank included a reference to a Commonwealth Police Officer of that rank.

“(3.) Where a writ or warrant is issued under the law of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth in relation to an offence or other matter under a law of the Commonwealth, the writ or warrant may, notwithstanding that it is not addressed to a Commonwealth Police Officer and notwithstanding any requirement of the law of the State or Territory of the Commonwealth as to the person by whom it may be executed, be executed by a Commonwealth Police Officer.

27th November, 1957.

"(4.) A Commonwealth Police Officer is not required under, or by reason of, a law of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth—

- (a) to obtain or have a licence or permission for doing an act or thing in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his powers as a Commonwealth Police Officer; or
- (b) to register any vehicle, vessel, animal or article belonging to the Commonwealth.

"(5.) In this section—

- ' authority of the Commonwealth ' includes any authority or body, whether corporate or not, constituted by or under a law of the Commonwealth;
- ' powers and duties ' includes authorities, rights, privileges, immunities and responsibilities."

On the motion of Mr. Beale, the Schedule was omitted, and the following Schedule inserted in place thereof:—

" THE SCHEDULE.

Sections 5 and 10.

OATH.

I, _____, do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Her Heirs and Successors according to law, and that I will well and truly serve Her in the office of Commonwealth Police Officer, without favour or affection, malice or ill-will, until I am lawfully discharged:

So HELP ME GOD!

AFFIRMATION.

I, _____, do solemnly and sincerely promise and declare that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Her Heirs and Successors according to law, and that I will well and truly serve Her in the office of Commonwealth Police Officer, without favour or affection, malice or ill-will, until I am lawfully discharged."
