

AUSTRALIA
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

No. 25

WEDNESDAY, 16 OCTOBER 1974

1 The House met, at twelve o'clock noon, pursuant to adjournment. Mr Speaker (the Honourable J. F. Cope) took the Chair, and read Prayers.

2 PETITIONS: The Clerk announced that the following Members had each lodged petitions for presentation, viz.:

Mr Erwin, Mr Fisher, Mr Macphee, Mr Mathews and Mr Nixon—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House ask the Australian Commission on Advanced Education to consider in its 1976–78 Triennium Report an allocation of funds for the provision of Union Facilities at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology.

Mr Jones (Minister for Transport) and Dr Klugman—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government hasten to introduce a universal health scheme so that health care services in Australia can function efficiently and economically.

Mr Hodges and Mr McVeigh—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government take no measures to interfere with existing television program standards or to permit easier entry into Australia, or production in Australia, of pornographic material.

Mr Coates—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House urge the Government (1) to grant at least $10 million immediate emergency aid to the Sahelian region of Africa and continue to assist in the long term agricultural and social development of the region and (2) to take a leading part in initiatives to set up world food and fertilizer funds at the World Food Conference in November.

Mr Dawkins—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House urge the Government to (1) justify existing relations with Indonesia, particularly the aid program and (2) examine ways to control private investment and to direct official aid so as to benefit the economically and politically weaker sections of the Indonesian people.

Mr Hodges—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House not admit into the law of this land the principle that marriage is only temporary and the family no longer the fundamental unit of society.

Mr Hodges—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House not proceed with the Human Rights Bill.

Mr Jarman—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government immediately increase, as an interim measure, current grants made to children in non-government schools to at least 50 per cent of the cost of educating children in government schools.

Mr Lusher—from certain electors of the Division of Hume praying that greater consideration be given to those provisions of the Family Law Bill which could place in an unjust and unfair position a woman who performs in a praiseworthy manner her duties of wife, mother and home-maker.

Mr MacKellar—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House take action against the Government's decision to recognise the sovereignty of the Soviet Union over the Baltic States of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

- Mr McLeay—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the Government take no measures to interfere with the existing national health scheme.
- Mr Mathews—from certain electors of Australia praying that the House take immediate steps to restore education benefits to parents, at least to the 1973-74 level, either by increasing taxation deductions or through taxation rebates.
- Mr Millar—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House not admit into the law of this land the Family Law Bill in its present form.
- Mr Morris—from certain citizens of Australia praying that the House pass the Family Law Bill without delay.
- Mr Nixon—from certain citizens of Australia praying that sub-clause 10 (3) of the Human Rights Bill 1973 be amended by adding the following words: "and no revenue derived in any way from any Australian citizen shall be appropriated by the Australian Government, or by a State Government, or by a Municipal Government, for the propagation or support of any religion".
